B. Organization of work of the session
(Agenda item 2 (b))

5. At the 1st meeting of the AGBM, on 5 March, the Chairman recalled that there would be services available for one morning and one afternoon meeting with interpretation from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. The AGBM agreed to proceed on the basis of the proposed schedule of work contained in annex II of document FCCC/AGBM/1996/1/Add.1.
6. On the subject of applications for accreditation to sessions of the subsidiary bodies of the Convention, the AGBM agreed to admit new applicant organizations that had been screened by the secretariat, on the basis of the provisions of Article 7.6 of the Convention, without prejudice to subsequent action by the Conference of the Parties (COP).
7. Further, the Chairman recalled that non-governmental organizations would be admitted onto the floor before and after meetings only.
8. The AGBM, at its second session, had decided to convene informal workshops on policies and measures and quantified emission limitation and reduction objectives, in conjunction with the third session (see FCCC/AGBM/1995/7, paras. 29 and 38). The workshop on quantified objectives was held on Wednesday, 28 February 1996 and the workshop on policies and measures on 4 and 5 March 1996.
