

Conclusions:

There was no genocide nor mass killing. The conduct of the FMG forces was as good as that of any forces during and after a war. The FMG forces are contributing to the relief, rehabilitation efforts in the war affected area.