

these efforts, Canada will work closely with our colleagues on the Council and with the countries of the region."

Canada continues to condemn unequivocally the invasion of Kuwait by Iraq. The Canadian Government is convinced that the Resolutions adopted by the Security Council indicate in clear terms the path which Iraq must follow if it wishes to resume its place as a member of the international community.