ADVERTISING OF INCOME TAX DEADLINE

Question No. 1,555-Mr. Knowles:

With reference to the answer to part 3 of question No. 1,320, recorded in Hansard of May 25, 1966, what is the assessment of the value of the advertising of April 30 as the deadline for filing personal income tax returns?

Hon. E. J. Benson (Minister of National Revenue): Canadians are reminded each year 23033-419 Questions of the approaching April 30 deadline for the filing of income tax returns and payment of moneys due to the crown. Inasmuch as penalties are levied against those who file after the due date and who have not made the necessary payments, it is considered an obligation on the part of the Department of National Revenue to remind all taxpayers of the deadline. This notice usually forms part of the informational program conducted during the filing season, part of the program being paid advertising.

Figures for the last two filing years for late filing of returns as of December 31, are:

T1 Shorts

1964 (1963 tax year) 205,000 out of 5,300,000 1965 (1964 tax year) 154,000 out of 5,600,000

T1 Generals

1964 (1963 tax year) 111,600 out of 1,165,000 1965 (1964 tax year) 102,500 out of 1,247,000

RESIGNATION OF AMBASSADOR TO GREECE

Question No. 1,562-Mr. Allard:

1. Has the Secretary of State for External Affairs received a copy of a manuscript of the memoirs of Mr. Antonio Barrette, Canadian Ambassador to Greece and, if so, when?

2. Has Mr. Barrette tendered his resignation to the government and, if so, what reasons did he give for such resignation?

3. Is it the intention of the government to appoint Mr. Barrette to another position within or outside Canada?

[Translation]

Hon. Paul Martin (Secretary of State for External Affairs): 1. Mr. Barrette sent to the Department of External Affairs, in two parts, the manuscript of his memoirs: the first part was received at the end of July 1965, the second on August 17, 1965.

2. Under the regulations of the Department of External Affairs no member of the department can without prior permission publish articles or books or make public statements even in his private capacity; permission cannot be granted if the articles or books or statements concerned can give rise to political controversy. Since the department's opinion, which had informally been passed on to him on August 11, 1965 and confirmed on January 31, 1966 was that Mr. Barrette's memoirs came within the terms of the regulations and that permission to publish them could not be granted, he asked, on April 25,
