GRANTHAM.

A Township in the Niagara District; is bounded on the east by the township of Niagara; on the north by Lake Ontario; on the west by Louth; and on the south by Thorold. In Grantham, 20,565 acres are taken up, 11,049 of which are under cultivation. This is an old settled township, containing some good farms. The town of St. Catharines is situated in Grantham, on the Welland Canal, which enters the township at its north-west corner, and, after bending to the south-east until it reaches the centre of the township, runs directly south till it emerges from it into the township of Thorold. Much of the land in Grantham is hilly. There are five grist and two saw mills in the township; of which four grist mills are in the town of St. Catharines. Much of the population of the townships bordering on the canal is floating; large numbers of labourers being employed on the canal, who, when their work is completed, remove to another locality; and many stores are temporarily opened to supply them with necessities, which on their removal are closed.

Population in 1842, 3832; who are a mixture of Canadians, Americans, Irish, Scotch and English.

Ratable property in the township, £57,605.
