

ect, some years ago, the assembly's College, Belfast, for good greater than the sons; upon them depended the Church, and the civilization of the world. Philosophy with that school in which Christological College. The no social rank or influence were sneered at by instilled into them principles of power, which ere long, slavery, and revolutionized the most reform ever known by the philosophy of the enemy, not by the power of Galilean fishermen of Nazareth.

of Nazareth we find the love self, and consecrated to the good of his fellow content to speculate among of their well-furnished learned societies; but then a nobler career. The erring; they were adoration, fanaticism among of missionaries and to elevate the poor training to the heathen agents." Such brief A glance therefore source of interest to a story of the Church.

ded in 1845. Its first Front Street, between Rev. Dr. Burns, Rev. 1847 the Rev. Michael which he filled with the college removed to Grosvenor and St. Church). This was a convenient building is in many respects venue (the Broadway

(Toronto), just north of College, it is almost in the centre of the city. has a frontage of 250 feet, wings running back 150 feet, a tower rising over the front entrance 130 feet. It contains large corridors, lecture rooms, private rooms, dining hall, and a handsome convocation hall, besides the comforts of a first-class residence. The whole represents a value of nearly $200,000. Its endowment fund now paid in amounts to $190,000. The total number of students last session was 101; of these, 73 were in Theology and 28 in the preparatory classes. The following constitute the Faculty, viz.:—

Rev. William Caven, D.D., Principal and Professor of Exegetics and Bible Criticism.

Rev. William Gregg, D.D., Professor of Apologetics and Church History.

Rev. William McLaren, D.D., Professor of Systematic Theology.

Rev. R. Y. Thomson, B.D., Professor of Apologetics and Old Testament Literature.

Rev. J. J. A. Proudfoot, Lecturer on Church Government and Pastoral Theology.

Prof. S. S. Neff, Teacher of Elocution.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE, KINGSTON.

The City of Kingston may well be proud of her University, founded in 1841. It has ever since occupied a prominent position in the educational institutions of Canada. Its first Principal was the Rev. Dr. Liddell, of Edinburgh, who occupied this responsible position from 1841 to 1846. He was succeeded by Dr. Macher, who not only discharged the duties of Principal with marked ability, but also was pastor of St. Andrew's Church. Dr. Macher resigned in 1856, and was followed by Dr. Cook, of Quebec, who held the position for three years. In 1859 the Rev. Dr. Leitch was appointed. Under his care the college enjoyed a good measure of prosperity. He continued in office until his death in 1864. Rev. Dr. Snodgrass, then Pastor of St. Paul's Church, Montreal, was appointed his successor. After an excellent work of thirteen years he resigned, to accept the pastorate of an important charge in Scotland. He was succeeded by the Rev. Geo. M. Grant, D.D., then pastor of St. Matthew's Church, Halifax. The success which has attended the efforts of Principal Grant is so well known that it is only necessary to state that never in its eventful history has Queen's College been in such a prosperous condition as at present. The following are the Faculty:—

Rev. G. M. Grant, D.D., Principal and Professor of Divinity.

Rev. J. B. Mowat, D.D., Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Exegesis.

Rev. Donald Ross, D.D., Professor of Apologetics and New Testament Criticism.

Rev. James Carmichael (King), Lecturer on Church History.

Rev. John McNaughton, M.A., Professor of Greek.

Rev. James Fowler, M.A., Professor of Natural Science.

Rev. Geo. Bell, D.D., Registrar.