

	PAGE
XIV.
Prohibition to speak against the opinion that Mary was exempt from original sin,	61
XV.
The opinion favorable to Mary's privilege may alone be maintained either in public or in private,	63
XVI, XVII.
Alexander VII renews and confirms the Constitutions of his predecessors in favor of the Immaculate Conception,	68
XVIII.
Judgment of the Holy Fathers on the present question—The silence of the two first centuries is by no means inimical to the Immaculate Conception, but on the contrary supposes it,	65
XIX.
Document which justifies that supposition,	66
XX.
Origen admits the fair privilege of Mary,	68
XXI.
The Greek Liturgy and Menologies confirm our doctrine,	69
XXII.
The Fathers of the fourth century are favorable to the pious opinion that Mary was exempt from original sin,	70
XXIII.
Famous testimony of St. Jerome in favor of our doctrine,	71
XXIV.
Important testimony of St. Augustine on the subject,	73
XXV.
The word renascendi employed by the holy Doctor is not at all favorable to the contrary opinion,	74
XXVI.
Those passages wherein the holy Doctor affirms that original sin was transmitted to all men, do not include the Blessed Virgin Mary,	76
XXVII—XXXII.
Testimony of other Fathers of the Church in favor of Mary's privilege,	77
XXXIII.
St. Bernard was never opposed to the doctrine of the Immaculate Conception of Mary; he is defended against such an imputation,	81