THE HUDSON RIVER.

Probably no other river in the world presents so great a variety of views as the Hudson. Throughout its whole extent, there is a combination of the finest views, and each turn in its course, reveals fresh pictures which serve to illustrate some of the best scenery of the Old World. Some travellers have pronounced the Hudson grander than the Rhine. Certainly the unprejudiced opinion of Tourists will agree with that of Thackeray, who has given to this noble river, the verdict of Beauty.

In order to view these beauties, it is necessary that this trip be taken by daylight, and we recommend to the notice of our readers the splendid steamers "Armenia," "Chauncey Vibbard" and "Daniel Drew," of the Day-line. These are indeed floating palaces, for the speed and arrangements of the vessels, and the luxurious fittings of the saloons, are not surpassed by any other line of boats on the continent.
