

10. No member shall speak more than once upon any question, unless with the permission of the Society, except in explanation of a material part of his speech which may have been misconceived, and no new matter shall be introduced upon such explanation. A reply is allowed to a member who has opened a debate or moved a substantive motion other than those enumerated in Rule 16, but not to the mover of an amendment.

11. When two or more members rise at once to speak, the Chairman shall determine their precedence.

12. When a member is speaking, no person shall interrupt, except for the purpose of calling him to order.

13. A member called to order shall at once sit down until the point is stated and determined by the Chairman, whose decision shall be given without debate, unless, being in doubt, he shall invite discussion. If such decision is appealed from, the grounds of appeal and the reasons for the decision having been stated, the question shall, without debate, be put as follows :—"Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained ?"

14. Any member may require the question under discussion to be read at any time, but not so as to interrupt a member while speaking.

15. When a member is speaking, a motion being read, or a vote taken, no member shall walk out of or across the room, or make any noise. Conversation calculated to disturb any member while speaking or reading, or to hinder the transaction of business, shall be deemed a violation of order, and if persisted in, shall incur censure.

16. Every motion shall be seconded and read from the chair before it is discussed.
