VICTORY IN THE AIR IN HAMILTON AND WENTWORT

Sealey Meeting Cheers For the Conservative Candidate - A Miniature Strike.

MAMILTON, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—
The greatest feeling of confidence that the two Conservative candidates for parliamentary honors in Hamilton will be returned by increased majorities to-morrow pervades the atmosphere of the party headquarters and committee rooms thruout the city. Nor is that feeling based on hope rather than on knowledge and judgment. While the large and intensely enthusiastic mass meetings which have been held within the last few days point unmistakably to a great anti-reciprocity victory in this city, the Conservative workers have kept in close touch with the electorate and are in a position to know how the big majority will vote. The deep rooted opposition to the reciprocity pact in the local Liberal ranks leaves no ground for doubt of the outcome, and it can safely be predicted that both the Liberal candidates here will be badly beaten.

No more doubt exists as to the result in the county. Altho it has been said that W. O. Sealey would spend $20,000 to retain his seat, the feeling in the Wentworth constituency is so strong against the reciprocity agreement that it is considered hardly possible that he could avoid defeat if he spent ten times that sum. As a prominent man said to day: "If Gordon C. Wilson does not win the Wentworth seat, you may just as well concede that Laurier will be returned with an increased majority, for if reciprocity can win against the flerce opposition which it has met in this county, it can win anywhere," and that is just about the size of the situation. Wilson in Wentworth is the one best bet.

A Rip-Roaring Meeting.

Gordon C. Wilson held a genuine rip-roaring meeting in Maple Leaf Park in Crown Point to-night, which served as a fitting finale to the magnificent fight which he has put up for the Wentworth seat. The largest and most enthusiastic crowd he has met outside of Dundas greeted him to-night and tendered him a reception that would have made his opponent green wish envy had he ben there. Sealey was there last night and his performance can be likened to nothing else so much as to the action of a curious bear who breaks into a hive of energetic bees. Sealey was also greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience, but the bills.

William Strong, a prominent man of this city, is suing Mrs. Susannah Harris of Sloux City, Iowa, for the recovery of $15,000 in money and two valuable parcels of land, one piece of which lies in the city and the other in Barton township. Mr. Strong claims that the ladw in question secured possession of the property by misrepresentation, fraud and duress, and without consider ation. Particulars in the case are not obtainable. The case will probably be tried at the winter assizes in this city.

A miniature strike occurred here this morning among the local yardmen of the Grand Trumk Railway, when several men quit in protest against the appointment of an alleged strike-breaker to the position of assistant yardmaster. At the local G. T. R. offices to-night it was stated that the places of the men had been filled and the trouble was all over.

THE BURNING QUESTION.

Some people might tell you that the burning question of the day is reciprocity or the probable result of the general elections, but by far the greater number at this time of the year would asree that the greatest of all problems requiring solution is that of thirst. IN EXPECTATION OF DEFEAT.

"If the government and reciprocity are beaten at the polls-there will be compensation. The defeat of reciprocindependence, will weaken the ties that bind this country to the empire, and make insecure the development of our country as a distinct national entity. Altho we think that those who have such fears are mistaken, they err nobly. Litigation Over Estate.

The contest over the estate of the late Lawrence Boyle was reopened in the non-jury assize court yesterday, and was adjourned for a week.

The property is known as No. 333 Queen-street west, and is valued at $9,000. Mrs. Margaret McCabe, formerly Boyle, cisims the estate, but Lawrence Boyle, the plaintiff, advances the argument that he is the "long-lost son," and claims half of the property?

Couldn't Prove Zidenberg Figured in Brutal Assault.

Samuel Zidenberg, appeared before Judge Winchester, yesterday in the court of general sessions, to answer to a charge of assaulting and doing actual bodily harm to Israel Levy. The case arose out of the garment workers' strike at Gordon, McKay's last July. Levy did not sympathize with the strikers, of whom Zidenberg was one.

Levy was set upon by six men at the corner of Woiseley and Denison-ave., and was severely handled, according to David Cohen, who saw the melee from his window. Levy reeled out of the crowd, with his face covered with blood, and was followed by one man, who Cohen stated was Zidenberg, and then continuing in a semi-dazed condition. Zidenberg was the only man whom he recognized.

Zidenberg filed an alibi, stating that he did not rise that morning until 8,30, whereas the assault took place at 7 a.m. He also swore that he was not at the corner of Demison and Wolseley that morning. He produced no witnesses, however, to substantiate his statements. was one.
