W. D. ANNIS OPPOSES A. McCOWAN IN EAST YORK

T. H. Lennox Choice of North York Conservatives—County News From a Wide Area.

W. D. Annis, reeve of Scarborough Township, was on Saturday afternoon, induced to accept the nomination for East York in the Liberal interest at a meeting of the executive held in East Toronto.

Mr. Annis is well known to be averse to entering the lists and it was only due to strong pressure that he acceded to the wishes of the executive. He will enter at once upon a vigorous campaign and will be assisted by J. W. Curry, H. C., and other well known city lawyers.

Reeve W. D. Annis has resided all his life in Scarborough Township, has been associated in municipal life for half a dozen years in the last two or three as reeve of the township, is a successful farmer, the now retired from active life, is a comparatively young man, has a clear record, is personally popular in his native township and for a Liberal will make a good run in the historic old riding.

John Locke, pastor of Davenport Methodist Church, several pastors from other churches were also present. The collection was in aid of the new parish house of John's Church.

His lordship, the Bishop of Toronto, was the special preacher at matins in St. Mark's Church this morning. In the afternoon, Bishop Seweney spoke at St. Mark's Mission, Barboursville.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Stewart of Swansea, was held this afternoon at Humboldt Cemetery, West Toronto, at 2 o'clock.

The service was very impressive. The rector spoke to the railway men as men who had experienced their trials and temptations. He referred to the deceased members of the church, but stated that he would preach not of the dead, but to the living.

Later in his address he spoke of the railway men as the most noble class in the world, but he stated that, even though this was an advantage, yet it had its disadvantages in that it led to careless living.

At one stage Mr. Wilson refused to be the standard-bearer, but upon the pressure of his friends has consented to run. He has no idea of defeating Mr. Dargavel, but thinks he can pull down the majority.

As the result of two days' registration, 71 names have been added to the voters' list.
