AY CONCERT

Labor men and their friends celebrated their victory on May 2nd last night at the Massey Music Hall. The program put on by the orchestra and choir was a beautiful one and the audience was very much interested. The program consisted of songs in their own language and in English. The audience had an interesting time and the concert was a great success. The Massey Music Hall is a fine place for concerts and the orchestra and choir are of high quality.

AGAINST CANADA

May 2. (Can. Press).—The Daily Mail comments on President Taft's letter to the British Empire, concerning reciprocity. The article states that the British Empire has been deliberately plotting the absorption of the Dominion of which it was an integral part. At best it was an attempt to absorb Canada and the Dominion of the West. The article also mentions that the British Empire is a danger and how the Dominion of the West should be congratulated for its independence.

GIAGARA NAV. DEAL

May 1.—The directors of the Niagara Navigation Company have approved the offer made of which were announced on the 25th inst. The offer was a resolution which was passed by the family of Markland Moison, who is the owner of the company.

Coming to Shea's

There is a great bill of goods coming to Shea's this week, headed by the medicine, Emma Curran, a singing comedienne, home made wine, and a large lot of friends are invited. Miss Curran is a star and will give an immense variety of songs and plays. Shea's is a fine place for entertainment and the program is very interesting.

C.P.R. Steamers Bid
Qwen Sound Good-bye
 OWEN SOUND, May 1. (Special).—The C. P. R. fleet this morning sailed for Port McNicoll, the new steamship headquarters. The squadron was given a good send-off over one thousand citizens being at the dock to bid them farewell. The flagship, Assiniboia, Commodore Louis Fyette, sailed out at 6 o'clock with 500 men and a salvo of salutes from the factories along the shore of the harbor. The Kewatin, Capt. M. McPhee, followed the flagship, and the Alberta, Capt. Davis, the Manitoba, Capt. Helms, and the St. Paul, Young, followed. Capt. N. McNeill, commodore of the fleet, and five freight porters who were in the employ of the company, and who will work in the freight sheds at the new steamship terminal. This is practically the last of the C. P. R. steamers so far as the local port is concerned. The Manitoba will make weekly calls for local freight and passengers, otherwise the association of the C. P. R. Huges with Owen Sound is a thing of the past.

WIRELESS WILL NEVER SLEEP
 WASHINGTON, May 1. (Can. Press).—A twenty-four-hour-a-day vigil at a wireless instrument will be required after July 1 of every kind of craft leaving an American port and carrying one hundred persons if the Hitecock bill, passed yesterday by the House, is agreed to by the Senate. The bill specifies that each vessel must have two operators, one of whom will be always on duty, and the wireless apparatus must be capable of sending messages one hundred miles and receiving them from a like distance.
