meeting last night, b a unamious vote asking to be annexed, wit hthe agreement that the city should run their cars to the Humber, with single fare rates, and that the village should within two years be provided with a complete water system.

What the meeting tacked in good order it made up in enthusiasm. The meeting was mainly divided into two bodies, one wanting to present a petition asking for annexation, with the agreement that they should have a fixed assessment for five years; the other side contended that with this agreement they would get nothing at all, and that the argument that they would be taxed out of existence with-

Proposals were also made that the city should widen Bloor-street for them and give them a car line on this street, but this was voted down by

HUMBER BAY, May 30 .- (Special.)

-King Benson, general organizer for the Ancient Order of Foresters, has been working in the Humber Bay district for the past week, for the purpose of establishing a court of the order in the village. The work has so far proven very successful and he has twenty-eight members ready to be initiated on Friday night in the Orange Hall.

It is thought in the district that this court will prove one of the strongest in the suburbs when properly organ-ized. Strong courts are now estab-lished at Swansea and is Mimico: CHRIST CHURCH SOCIAL.

A most unique social event was given by the Woman's Guild at Christ Church rectory, Woodbridge, on Wednesday afternoon last. In spite of the inclemency of the weather an exceptionally large number of ladies were entertained by the Rev. and Mrs. Evans. The table was tastefully decorated with Richmond roses and lilies of the valley, and was presided over by Mrs. F. Hicks and Miss Elliott.

While tea was being served delightful vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Dalziel, Miss Reid and Miss Wal-
