A Christmas Day wedding was solemnized at the house of the bride's father, Mr. Joseph V. Staples. Woodville, when his daughter, Isabel Louise, was married to Mr. John L. Mackenzie McFadden of Winnipeg.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked pretty in her gown of duchess satin, with court train, tulle veil with orange blossoms, and carried bride roses and lilles of the valley. Her maid of honor, Miss Beatrice M. Birmingham, Toronto, wore a pannier gown of palest pink minon over pale blue satin. The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. Donald A. Mackenzle, Toronto. The bridal party entered the drawing-room to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Belle Campbell, who wore green satin with ninon and crystal tunic. Rev. W. R. Archer, Woodville Methodist Church, performed the ceremony, and only the immediate relations were present. After the wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. McFadden left on the evening train for Toronto and other points, the bride wearing a traveling suit and hat of darkest blue. Shortly after New Year's they will take up their residence in Winnipeg.

For the next best 24 letters— Each one a pair of seats for one of the performances of Robert Loraine in "Man and Superman" at the Princess

Every reader of The To-ronto World is eligible to en-ter this contest and compete for these prizes.

THE QUESTIONS. Here are the questions to be answered or discussed in your letter: "Is Mr. Shaw justified in claiming there is so much sham about society?"

"Do girls entice men into marriage rather than risk single life?"

"Do mothers, in thinking so much of the necessity of marriage for their daughters, neglect proper consideration of the men into whose hands they give the future happiness of their children?" THE RULES.

All letters will be considered and the prize winners will receive the awards by mail. The World reserves the right to publish, in addition to the prize winners, any letter that may be of interest. The contest starts today. Limit your letter to 250 words. The first instalment of letters will be published in The Toronto World tomorrow.

Write your letters plainly and distinctly on one side of the paper, giving correct name and address. Bring or mail them at once to the "Man and Superman" Essay Editor, Toronto World.

Chip and Marble at Shea's.

Manager Shea has booked a notable bill for this week at Shea's Theatre. Heading the list is Sam Chip and Mary Marble, presented by John Dunne, the their new sketch by Herbent Hall Winslow, and the new offering again shows the clever pair as Dutch youngsters. The scene is laid in Hulland, and Mr. Chip and Miss Marble have a number of new songs that come between their comedy and their pathos. The special attractions for the week are Cliff Gordon, "The German Politician," and Bird Millman and Company, the dancing sensation on the wire. Other feature acts included in this week's bill are Jones and Sylvester, Sully Family, Josetti Brothers, Pauline Moran, Jas. F. Dolan and Ida Lenharr, and the Kinetograph.

"We, Us and Co." at Gayety.

Jacobs and Jermon, who present the "Queens of Pamis" in "We, Us & Co.," at the Gayety Theatre, have utmost faith in the value of the play, for not only have they engaged a company of recognized artists, but in the matter of equipment of the production no momey has ben spared to make it the most elaborate entertainment these most elaborate entertainment these managers have as yet presented to a critical public.
