BARONS TO SEE MITCHELL STRIKE MAY BE AVERTED

President Wilcox Believes Union Officers Are Not Looking for Labor War.

New York, Feb. 9.—The Tribune says: The clerical staff in most of the offices of the anthracite coal fields, 15,000 men, worked overtime yesterday in preparation for the coming conference with President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers, the result of which will determine whether or not there will be a strike.

All the coal presidents have replied to Mitchell's offer of a conference. President David Wilcox of the Delaware and Hudson Co., today made public the text of the letter which he forwarded to John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, concerning a conference between the workers and the operators to discuss the anthracite coal strike.
