"The Stanley Cup must return to Ottawa." That is the slogan of the former holders of the trophy, according to a despatch from the capital. Already steps have been taken to strengthen the team, and as a result Smith's Falls will not figure in hockey this season. The two new men secured by Ottawa are Percy Lesueur and Harold Armstrong, who are participating in the first practices of the season. It will take up their permanent residence in Ottawa. Lesueur occupies a posision in the Union Bank, while Armstrong is similarly located in the Bank of Ottawa.

Both Lesueur and Armstrong are well known in Ottawa having appeared there with Smith's Falls against the Victorias last winter in their schedule game in the Federal League, and also in the series for Both Lesueur and Armstrong are well known in Ottawa, having appeared there with Smith's Falls against the Victorias last winter in their schedule game in the Federal League, and also in the series for the Stanley Cup. Lesueur was brought to Ottawa for the final game in the saw-off with Wanderers, playing in goal, and is recognized as a star man for the position.

The first practice of the Toronto Rowing Club hockey team will take place to-night on Victoria College Rink, on Czar-street, at 7.30.

The House Nine Hockey Club of Power-street have secured a first-class skating rink in the east end and will be able to have their usual practice on Monday, Wed-nesday and Friday. The manager, J. Hal-linan, expects to have some pretty smart hockey players this season, such as Captain Dillon.
