The market opened weak, but quickly rallied on buying of Baldwin, Guerney, Cudahy and St. Louis, and became exceptionally strong. The visible supply showed a decrease of 1,285,000 bushels, which was about twice as much as was expected.
July shorts are being pinched, but the market for the later months shows the trade is awake to the actual scarcity of the grain in milling position the world over; for once the farmers seem to have a decided advantage and a knowledge of how to use it. Everything except wheat, it is suid, is plentiful. Now gold in Alaska and money a drug at lowest rates of interest in all markets at home and abroad, is the expressive builish sentiment now meeting the extremes of almost equally bearish views a short time ago. The weather and crop conditions were exceptionally favorable. There were some good buying orders for Continental account. Réports of liberal seaboard engagements and evidence of a heavy export business in the southwest added to the anxiety of shorts. There was considerable realizing of wheat on the advance. In the last hour Barrett, Reache Bartlett, Baldwin, Farnum and O'Briet

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) received the following despatch to-day from Chicago:

Provisions—Opened strong and higher. Receipts of hogs, 7000 less than expected. Anglo-American Provision Company was a good buyer of September and October lard. Commission houses bought September ribs. Markét became weak toward the close on selling packers. Estimated hogs to-morrow, 18,000.

Wheat—At opening this morning—an easier feeling prevalled owing to increased receipts of winter wheat at primary points and larger offerings from first hands. Weaker cables also aided in the decline. The weakness was, however, of very short duration and the market was influenced by recovery of Liverpool cables, strong French cables, owing to somewhat smaller crop than expected, and good foreign buying orders developed an advancing tendency and ruled very firm during the latter part of the session. The close was strong at 2c advance over lowest prices of the day. There were also several bullish items that helped the market along, viz.; the decrease of 1.285,000 bushels. In visible supply, which was more than double the estimate, decreases in amount, on passage and English supply of 1,200,000 bushels and 1,360,000 bushels and light world's shipments of 3,900,000 bushels. Foreign situation "per contra" is remarkably strong, and it seems probable that the market will experience some lively fluctuations. To-day foreign news was triumphant; to-morrow the news in this country may be.
