MONTREAL, May 5.—(Special.)—
There will be a building boom in Montreal this season, if no labor troubles come to upset present calculations.

come to upset present calculations. Reports from the city hall state that, including the C. P. R. station and St. Lawrence Hall structures, the total value of the new work will be about $12,000,000. There are also 1000 flats being constructed in the northern part of the city.

Workmen reached him.

He was placed on a flotcar and rushed to West Toronto, where he was put in a caboose. Dr. Clendenning traveled with him to the head of Bathurst-street, where they were met by the police ambulance and the man was rushed to the hospital. There an anaesthenic was administered. by the provincial minister of agriculture, was to-day forwarded to Finance Minister Fielding, asking that the duty If Shad Link, the wrestler, who is "meeting comers" at the Star Theatre this week with the Morning, Noon and Night Burlesque Show, is right, Toronto's wrestling wonder, Hassan Abdullah, the "Terrible Turk," is not really terrible, but "The Greasy Turk," Shad wrestled with Hassan last night at the Star and failed to throw the Turk in the 15 minute limit stipulated, and the latter gathered in the $25 forfeit. on American fruit seeking a Canadian market, be made at least equal to the duty levied on Canadian fruit entering the United States.

At the close of the bout Shad Link registered a great big kick. He declared that the Turk's body had been greased, and members of the audience agreed with him, while another did not. Link now puts it this way, if the Turk will meet me again, and if he will submit to a good honest washing with soap and water before the bout, Shad will undertake to throw him three times within the hour, or, failing this, will give up the sum of $50. The Turk is willing to be washed and will again face Link on the soar services.

ing character because of its forming that conducted in St. James' Cathedral last night in commemoration of Ascension Day.

The local Geoffrey de St. Alder Preceptory of the Knights Templar, "Onward Christian Soldiers." the ef-members of the preceptory took up their position in the front pews, and, in their white vestments, relieved by scarlet hoods, presented an appearance which strongly recalled an interesting historical period.

The ritual, in which Rev. Canon Plumptre led, was of a special character, and contained an invocation of the divine blessing upon the officers of the order, "and especially the most eminent the supreme grand master and officers of the sovereign great priceptory of Canada, and the eminent preceptory officers and members of this preceptory here assembled."

The responses by the choir, under the direction of Dr. Albert Ham, were marked by clearness of enunciation, and the entire musical portion of the ceremonies was of like deeply impressive character.

The sermon, delivered by Rev. J. R. H. Warren, assistant rector of St. James', was an earnest admonition that life be spent in constant, patient effort to build up Christian character. There was an example of such effort in the lives of the Knights Templar plar of old, an order composed of consecrated men who were banded together to protect pilgrims on the way to worship at Jerusalem. The Knights were conspicuous for their fidelity to duty, trustworthiness and devotion to the Cross. They occupied responsible positions and sought to be true warriors of Christ not only against. Saladin for dominion over the holy land, but also against the world, the flesh and the devil.
