Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The market was strong Saturday and there is no indication of any change in the character of trading. All of the industrials which we have been recommending have been going up, and we think a number of them will still be higher. Some steel prices are up today. In addition U. S. Steel shares should go higher this week and we are still bullish on U. S. Steel, Signs and Hoplite. Believe G.M. and Ford are going still higher and Saturday and Sunday are going through 100. We believe any strength in the rails would be recommended, look after LIVINGSTON & CO.

BEAVERBROOK IS OUT IN NEW ROLE

Writes His Own Paper Criticizing His Own Dramatic Critic.

Differences Among Writers Draws Him to See New Play for Himself.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Lord Beaverbrook has introduced a new note into dramatic criticism. He has criticized the critics employed by his own papers, the Daily Express, Sunday Express and Evening Standard.
Owing to differences of opinion among these critics in appraising the American comedy "Mercenary Mary," produced in London, with Peggy O'Neill, Joseph Coyne and Lew Hearn in three of the leading parts, Lord Beaverbrook went to see the place himself to gain at first-hand impression. As a result, he felt himself called upon to write a letter, giving his verdict, to the editor of the Sunday Express.

HIS VIEWS DIFFERENT.

Beaverbrook is in accord with the opinion of the Evening Standard critic and lets the Daily Express critic down lightly, but he disagrees with the views of Hennen Swaffer, who writes theatre notices for the Sunday Express and he claims the right to say he thinks Swaffer is mistaken in denouncing "Mercenary Mary." "I write on the one hand," he adds, "I would not think as the principal shareholder of a newspaper of transmuting the right of distinguished dramatic critics to give their true and unbiased opinions of plays they see, I claim, on the other hand, full freedom to the critic who may constantly resort to epistolary print in similar circumstances—torn between the freedom of his emotions, and that might become a bore."

Swaffer's criticism was mainly that it wanted "more humor and some pliers who can sing."

The Morning Post thinks Beaverbrook's letter remarkable enough to warrant editorial comment. "Beaverbrook's acute discomfited," it says, "would demand pity were it not that his letter suggests the tiresome possibility he may constantly resort to epistolary print in similar circumstances—torn between the freedom of his emotions, and that might become a bore."

Liberal Sweep in Quebec Predicted

Lapointe Condemns Abusing of One Section of Country Against Another.

Canadian Press.

MONTREAL, Oct. 13.—In an address here last night over the radio, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, declared that the Quebec district would do in 1926 exactly what it did in 1921, namely, to return none but Liberals. The people of Quebec, said the Minister, liked matters defined and objected to matters being covered up and he believed that the system of abject compromises, improper unions and illegitimate and unnatural intrigues were finished with the defeat of the

BERLENBACH WON FROM SOLOMON

Light Heavyweight Champion Puts Panama Pugilist Away in Ninth Round.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Giving away nineteen pounds to a game and courageous foe, Paul Berlenbach, world's light heavyweight champion, yesterday afternoon scored technical knockout over King Solomon, Panama, in the ninth round of a ten-round match, at the New York National League ball park. Berlenbach weighed 172 and Solomon 191.

SECOND SURPRISE.

Solomon's defeat was the second surprise of the day, for a crowd of about 6,000 had previously seen Babe Herman, of California, outstanding featherweight challenger, held to a draw by Joe Celmers, of New York, a comparative unknown.

Celmars entered the ring for his match with Herman on only a few hours' notice as a substitute for the retired featherweight champion, Johnny Dundee, who failed to appear for the weighing-in at the offices of the New York Boxing Commission. Celmars appeared to be slightly overweight at 129 1/2 against 126 for Herman.

He soon proved that he would make trouble for the Californian by flooring the latter with a terrific left hook soon after the opening of the first round. During the next three rounds of the 10 round contest Celmers nonplussed the man who only recently held the championship, Louis (Kid) Kaplan, of Meriden, Conn., to a draw, dazing Herman with his speed and a sharp left jab to the head. Displaying nimble foot work he made Herman miss with both hands as the crowd roared its approval and it was not until the fifth round that the latter finally found the range. Herman rallied in the latter rounds and brought the fight to even terms, in the opinion of the judges, by terrific right handers to the chin which found Celmers always willing to mix. The draw verdict of the judges was received with disapproval by the crowd, a chorus of boos and hisses declared that many believe Celmers entitled to the honors.

THREE TEN-ROUNDERS.

The third of three ten-rounders which featured the show, conducted as a benefit for the National Sports Alliance, brought together a pair of fleet-footed lightweight, Jack Bernstein, of Yonkers, N. Y., and Sid Terris, of New York. It was their second meeting and took the judges' decision again this afternoon. A fast left jab which constituted Terris' chief weapon of defense was matched against a feinting left when called upon by Bernstein. The jab proved the more effective of the two blows and Bernstein was bleeding at the mouth when the 10 ended.

MEIGHEN OUT FLAT-FOOTED FOR PROTECTION

Thus Answers Accusations of Newspaper That He Avoided Subject.

DECLARES FREE TRADE WILL ACHIEVE NAUGHT Charges Liberals Had Failed To Carry Out 1921 Promises

Canadian Press.

MOOSE JAW, Sask., Oct. 13.—"Half and more than half of the Liberal party in Canada, is Protectionist tonight," declared Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, addressing a Conservative gathering here, last evening. He had been accused by a Western newspaper of not preaching protection in the West.

"When I get through tonight," he said, "nobody will have any doubt that I am preaching protection in the West."

He had preached it through dark days and fair days. He felt sure that half the Liberal party and a percentage of the Progressive party, believed in protection and for that reason, a Liberal-Progressive alliance pledging free trade as its goal, would never achieve anything.

Making a comparison between wage levels in Canada and in Germany, or the Orient, he asked how could Canada possibly reduce its wage level to the levels in those countries, and still compete with the United States. He challenged those in his audience who espoused free trade, to say if they were ready for free trade in labor.

"You know you are not," he added. "But was just what they would get, if they admitted freely goods made by labor paid about one-fifth what would be a living wage in Canada."

Reviewing tariff reductions of the last three years, Mr. Meighen asked if it was not clear, "that the Liberal-Progressive alliance had not failed to carry out its promises of 1921."

Commissioner Wigmore said this morning that it would be necessary to shut the water off in a small section of Union street to make repairs to a gate valve on the 16-inch water main at the corner of Union and St. David streets. The water will be turned off about 7 o'clock.

National Liberal and Conservative government in 1922.

"The coming of Mr. Patenaude," said Mr. Lapointe, "and the creation of his new group will not restore what has been destroyed."

SECTIONAL STRIFE.

A country which no longer has parties or what amounts to the same thing, which has too many parties, which has no stable politics, and the speaker who expressed the opinion that those who, like Mr. Patenaude, "wished to arouse one section of the country against another," were providing the best means of paralyzing the economic and industrial effort of the country.

"The Liberal government," concluded Mr. Lapointe, "is and will remain the government of all, and no group, association, or individual interest will dominate it. We will fight with our principles of Liberalism inscribed on our banners. We will not change our name, nor hide our colors."

Cubs Now Leading In Chicago Series

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—While his teammates were bunting hits off Ted Lyons, Tony Hausmann held the White Sox to five hits today and the Cubs added another victory in the city series. The score was 8 to 1. The Cubs now have won three games at the end of the fourth.
