Revolution Among Bulgarians Is Reported As Spreading FIVE ARE KILLED BALLOON RACE

EFFORT MADE TO REPLACE GOVERNMENT One Hundred Thousand Peasants are Reported as Marching on Sofia. CABINET IN SESSION Oncoming Troops are Halted by Rifle Fire From Two Regiments.

(Canadian Press.) Paris, Sept. 24.—A despatch to the Havas Agency from Sofia says the present insurrection in Bulgaria is spreading and gathering strength. One hundred thousand peasants, a majority of whom are armed and fairly well organized, are marching on Sofia in an attempt to overthrow the Government.

The despatch adds that the cabinet resigned Saturday night. It was presided over by King Boris. Two regiments have been dispatched against the on-coming peasants who are reported to have halted in the face of rifle fire.

(Canadian Press.) London, Sept. 24.—A Reuters despatch from Sofia says that since from recent communistic uprisings at Nova Zagora and Tchipran, in which 70 Communists either were killed or wounded, there have been no disturbances in Bulgaria.

Sofia, Sept. 24.—The general situation in Bulgaria shows a marked improvement. A few isolated cases of rebellion are still being reported, but these are regarded as unimportant. Troops reported by the population have been restored to their barracks.

GERMANY PREPARES TO PREVENT REVOLT Possibility of Trouble in Case Passive Resistance Is Abandoned. Berlin, Sept. 24.—Although the abandonment of passive resistance has not yet been decreed, its official termination is believed to be not far away and already there is speculation as to the attitude of the Communist and Nationalist groups.

Former military leaders feel that there will be no trouble from either Communist or Nationalist sources. They believe the ultra-radicals would find little or no support from the ranks of the workers, for whom Bolshevism no longer has charms. The Nationalist, it is pointed out, are a minority faction and in addition appear to lack either the funds or the material necessary for a successful insurrection.
