Perhaps it is as well to say at this stage that the citizens of St. John have Ontario to "think nationally," in regard not authorized Mr. Ross to say the last to questions raised by Quebec or the word about hydro electric. His report maritime provinces or the when it comes may be very interesting the same time it falls into the error of when it comes may be very interesting the same time it falls into the error of The inspiration of his eyes that dream, but not necessarily conclusive. So far as the maricompany should distribute the current in the real issue, and if Mr. Ross neals with the cost of civic distribution his report will naturally be of interest. It should not be necessary to go to Ottawa to get that information. The Hydro-Electric Commission offers to delive. It is aid once more that if New Brunswick is the real issue, and if Mr. Ross neals belief is not in accordance with the facts. M. O. H. Says it's a Day of Evil Fore-boding When Thrift is Sacrificed For Love of Luxury.

"History has revealed the fact that when men and women sacrifice thrift for the love of luxury, it is a day of evil foreboding, inasmuch as the love of luxury puts a premium on discontent," says Dr. Hastings, M. O. H., in his Health Bulletin for January.

investigations made by the ometas of his department the approximate average decreases in prices to the public, since the peak of prices of 1920, is a little over 24 per cent. The M. O. Dr. Meahan could see no redeeming feature in this new tendency, since he held the home to be the foundation of a truly Christian society. Unhappily his own health broke down, and a career of great usefulness and devoted service has ended all too soon. Dr. Meahan pursued a brilliant career as a student, and as a pulpit orator he had few equals in moving power. Withal, he was a genial man who made friends quickly, and they were by no means confined to his own church. His parish, the church and the city have suffered a great loss.
