GYROS BOOST NOVA SCOTIA.

The Gyro Club of Halifax has unanimously decided to get solidly bebind the Nova Scotia Publicity Bureau and make a thorough canvass of the city. The campaign will begin on Monday, April 28. At least twelve teams of active young business men, eager for service, will take the field and canvass every business and professional firm in Halifax.

Low 565 it. 4 "The decision to support the publicity bureau is well within the scope of our activities," sald President A. T. Smith to the Echo. "The Gyro Club makes for good citizenship and surely tit is the duty of good citizens to support to the utmost a movement like that of the publicity bureau, which has such tremendous possibilities for the upbuilding of Nova Scotia."

Amount of uncertainty, but the general feeling is that there will not be any claim to the action of the stock market one must take into consideration that there are a great many more stocks traced in today than there were fewer in the target of the way for a longer time as a result. A few years ago. There is no great leadership, and bears can swing things of the rew years ago. There were fewer stocks traced in today than there were a great many more stocks traced in today than there were a great many more stocks traced in today than there were fewer stocks traced in today than there were fewer stocks traced in today than there were a great many more stocks traced in today than there were a great many more stocks traced in today than there were fewer sev years ago. The bears are still working for much lower prices and drives may be expected from time to time. At the same time there is considerable good onlying going on, but slow buying which takes time to make itself felt. Contrary to expectotions, car loadings figures for the week of April 12 shows an increase of 19,203 cars. In some quarters a decrease of $25,000 cars was predicted in fact, the business situation is not as blue as the business situation is not as blue as the stock market indicates nor as the bears would like people to believe We would not be surprised at a raily running to the eno of this week although we expect further bear raids. Would rather buy stocks than sell at this stage.
