MR. JUSTICE KING DEAD.

He Sat in Victoria as One of Behring Sea Commission.

Ottawa, May 7.—Justice King, of the Supreme Court of Canada, died at midnight, aged 61.

Hon. George Edwin King was British Commissioner during the sittings of the Behring Sea commission in this city. He was born in St. John, N. B., in 1839, and was called to the bar in 1865. Entering politics as a Liberal-Unionist he was returned to the New Brunswick assembly in 1874, and in 1876 he resigned. He entered the Wolmer administration in 1879, and in 1879 was Attorney-General of the province, and in 1872 became premier.

He was appointed justice of the peace in 1882, and in 1892 was elevated to the bench of the Supreme Court of Canada. In 1898 he was chosen H. M. Commissioner for the Behring Sea arbitration, and his calm, dignified and trained judicial mind gained for him the admiration and respect of all who came in contact with him. He was an LL.D. of the University of New Brunswick, and D. C. L. of Mount Allison.

More Boers Captured

Lord Kitchener Reports That One Hundred Burghers Have Been Taken.

Improving Fortification Works Along Lines of Communication—Milner's Return.

London, May 7.—Lord Kitchener reports the capture of another hundred Boers, one 12-pounder, one 8-pounder, one Maxim and a quantity of ammunition.

Lord Kitchener's first long review of the South African operations, dealing chiefly with the invasion of Cape Colony, and dated March 8th, was published in the Gazette to-day.

He says it has been his endeavor since taking over the command to improve the fortification works along the lines of communication, thus reducing the guards, also evacuating the places remote from the railroads, thereby obviating convoys and escorts. He commanded upwards of 25,000 horses in Cape Colony since December.

Lord Kitchener favorably mentions 200 officers, non-commissioned officers and men.
