NEW ANGLO-JAPANESE

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The conclusion of the new Anglo-Japanese treaty of alliance, which the Associated Press announced on Aug. 25 had been signed, has only now become definitely known to the English newspapers, which are keenly interested in it and are anxiously discussing its probable contents. An important modification binding either power to come to the assistance of the other if attacked by one instead, as in the old treaty, of two powers, causes inquietude in some quarters, where it is thought to add enormously to Great Britain's responsibility; but on the whole complete satisfaction is expressed as to the scope of the new
