STUCK IN PULLMAN

BY HER EASTER HAT

Crea Wouldn't Clear Passage --- Wearer Had to Unpin and Wriggle From Under.

For five minutes the Pacific express on the Pennsylvania railroad at Pittsburg was delayed Sunday morning by an Easter hat. When the East Liberty station was reached a young and beautiful woman who boarded the train at New York Saturday night indicated that she intended to get out. She put on her new Easter hat and started through the narrow aisle at the side of the Pullman car. Suddenly she came to a stop. The hat was too wide to clear the passage. She tried to wriggle forward but couldn't, and then tried to back up. But the hat was stuck fast and she was nailed to it by half a dozen hat pins.

and she was nailed to it by half a dozen hat pins.

There was great excitement. The conductor demanded that the train start and threatened to carry the young woman on into the city. The porter tried to shove her forward, but it was no use. Then a travelling man suggested that she take the hat off. It hadn't occurred to her before. After much trouble she removed the hat pins. Then the got from under the hat and the porter gave it a yank. The hat cleared the aisle, but all the varnish on both sides of the passage came off.

By actual measurement the creation was 36 inches over all-

HELIE STILL ANNOYED BY

TOO MUCH PUBLICITY NAPLES, April 23.—Declaring that he had been driven almost to desperation, Prince Helie de Sagan left the hotel tonight at which he had been driven almost to desperation.

hotel tonight at which he had been staying and took an apartment on the Corso Vittorio Emmanuele under the nome of Louis Perigord. He expressed regret at the tardiness of the steamer WILL MAKE SURE THAT regret at the tardiness of the steamer Frederich der Grosse, on which Mme. Anna Gould is a passenger. Although due today the vessel will not arrive here until 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. The steamer's arrival, he said, would mean protection from being victimized by damned reports of two hemispheres."

The Prince has engaged a magnificent apartment dating from Friday, at 1 Bertolinis Palace Hotel, which dominates Naples and from which a splendid view of the gulf and Mount Vesuvius race was unsafe.
