POETRY.

MOTHER, HOME, AND HEAVEN.

MOTHER.

In childhood's rosy hours,
When life seems full of happiness
As nature is of flowers,
A word that manhood loves to speak,
When time has placed upon his cheek
And written on his brow,
Stern lessons of the world's untruth,
Unheeded in his thoughtless youth,
But sadly pondered now;
As time brings back, 'mid vanish'd years,
A mother's fondest hopes and fears.

HOME,

The only Eden left untouched,
Free from the tempter's snare;
A paradise where kindred hearts
May revel without care;
A wife's glad smile is imaged here,
And eyes that never knew a tear,
Save those of happiness,
Seen on the hearts that wander back,
From off the long and beaten track
Of sordid worldliness:
To ask those purer joys that come
Like Angels round the hearth of Home.

HEAVEN,

The end of all a mother's prayers—
The home of all her dreams;
The guiding star to light our path,
With hope's enchevering beams—
The haven for our storm-tossed bark,
From out a world where wild and dark
The tempests often rise—
But still in every darksome hour
This hope will rise with holy power,
And point us to the skies,
Where mother, home, and heaven are seen,
Without a cloud to intervene.

There is an old man in Belgrade on the frontiers of Hungray and Turkey, who has attained the enormous age of one hundred and seventy-two years. He is still in possession of all his faculties, and smokes his pipe regularly. Fifty years ago he used to go out hunting with his grandson, and it is not quite one hundred years since he made his third marriage with a young girl of nineteen, whom he has outlived by forty years. This requires con-firm-a-tion!

AGONIZING ELOQUENCE.—'Twas twilight. The sun had sunk behind the Western hill, and the bright rays which streaked the Eastern horizon had disappeared. A lovely female, who had been but one short week a bride, and had been led to the Hymenial alter with lively anticipations of future felicity, sat in a secluded apartment with her husband. She slowly moved her sylph-like form nearer to the partner of her bosom—raised her delicate hand, and—slapped his face with a dish cloth.

SHAKESPEARE, though one of the most gorgeous of men, was a great higgler. He was often known to dispute with a shopkeeper for half an hour on the matter of a penny. He gives Hotspur credit for a portion of his own disposition, when he makes him say, "I would cavil on the 1.inth part of a hair."

A gentleman, on hearing a lady praise the eyes of a certain minister, wrote the following:

I cannot praise the doctor's eyes,
I never saw his glance divine;
For when he prays he shuts his eyes,
And when he preaches he shuts mine.

A barber desired a groggy customer of his one Sunday morning, whose breath smelt strongly of alcohol, "to keep his mouth shut or the establishment might get indicted for keeping a rum hole open on Sunday."

What is wit? A sparkling beverage that is highly exhilerating and agreeable when taken at the expense of others, but when used at our own cost it becomes bitter and unpleasant.

THE GREAT REMEDY.

Sharp's Balsam of Hoarhound and Aniseed.

An never failling cure for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Shortness of Breath, &c.

The extraordinary celebrity which this simple, pleasing, and effectual medicine has attained, may be seen by the following proofs, or certificates, all from persons well known:—

MR. J. G. SHARP.—

Since you appointed me agent for the sale of your valuable Balsam of Hoarhound and Aniseed, I have been repeatedly informed by those who have used it, that it is without doubt one of the best medicines they have ever had, for the complaints in which it is recommended.

E. D. M'ARTHUR.

To Mr. J. G. Sharp—

SIR,—One of my children has been suffering for years under a severe Cough. The usual remedies were applied without effect. Having heard of Mr. J. G. Sharp's "Balsam of Hoarhound and Aniseed." I obtained some, and after the use of about 8 oz., or one vial of this extraordinary mixture, the cure was complete.

J. G. CAMPBELL,
April 28, 1852, City of Saint John,

Mr. J. G. Sharp,

Dear, a few weeks ago, a very bad cold. Being recommended to try Sharp's Balsam of Hoarhound and Aniseed, I got a quarter dollar bottle, and found it not only a pleasant but a most useful and effective medicine. It is pleasing to take, and a first rate cure.

PATRICK POWER,
April, 23, 1852, City of Saint John.

For the last sixteen years I have suffered from Asthma so bad that I was often obliged to sit in bed to prevent suffocation. I tried every means, during that time, that the usual or ordinary medicines could produce, but without effect, until I obtained some of Sharp's Balsam of Hoarhound and Aniseed, (which was recommended to me,) and after using two bottles, I found the relief so long sought for.

M. SMITH,
Studholm, Kings County, March, 1852.

Prospectus of Volume VIII., of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

THE Eighth Volume of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN commences on the 18th September, and as a great proportion of our readers usually commence their subscriptions at this point, we take occasion to extend them our gratitude for the encouraging and liberal support heretofore bestowed on our humble efforts, and to re-assure them of our determination to advance it still higher in the scale of utility, and, if possible, in their own estimation. We aim at an honorable independence in discussion upon all subjects, and, in some instances no doubt, our readers may have been surprised at our determined opposition to highly lauded discoveries in the Arts and Sciences.

Time tries all things, and it is with some degree of pride that we revert to the efforts made through the columns of the Scientific American, to establish sound views respecting several conspicuous miscalled discoveries. Since the commencement of this Volume, that peerless Exhibition of the Industry of all Nations closed its gorgeous display, affording a delightful episode in the stern page of the world's history. Above and beyond all criticism it has passed away, leaving a world-wide influence, beneficial to every branch of industry, and although not profusely represented by gew-gaws and tinselry,—the character of our country shone forth with magnificence in all the elements of substantial utility. Acting under the stimulus suggested by the success of the Great Exhibition, the most prime citizens of New York have determined to construct a Crystal Palace of no mean dimensions, and as this is likely to become an important feature in our history, we shall endeavor to present our readers with descriptions and illustrations of such novelties as may be deserving attention.

The present form of the Scientific American will be preserved as most suitable for binding and preservation. The paper will be of the best texture, and we shall aim to store its pages with practical knowledge in every branch of the Arts and Sciences. Invention claims important attention, as one of the fundamental agencies in the world's advancement; hitherto we hope to have satisfied our readers by our weekly summary of "New Inventions." The Weekly List of Patent Claims, officially reported for our columns, is a distinguishing feature, which must commend itself to every one interested in Patents.

We need the co-operation of our readers to enable us to publish a journal, worthy of their support at two dollars per annum. We have never appealed to them in vain, and the Premiums offered for the largest lists of names will, we presume encourage new efforts. All subscriptions are payable in advance. We repeat our warning against Travelling Agents, as none are accredited from this office.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W Kirkus, Chemist, 7, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 6th June, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for some years. A customer, to whom I can refer for any enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doubts were entertained of her not being able to bear up under it; fortunately she was induced to try your Pills, and she informs me that after the first, and each succeeding dose, she had great relief. She continued to take them, and although she used only three Boxes, she is now in the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases, but the above from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure, I think, speaks much in favour of your astonishing Pills. (Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Major J. Welch.

Margaret M'Connigan, nineteen years of age, residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs; during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she consented to do and in an incredible short space of time they effected perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF A PERSON 84 YEARS OF AGE.

From Messrs. Thew & Son, Proprietors of the Lynn Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement.—August 2nd, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me from walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so relieved me, that I am desirous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatively active, and can take exercise without inconvenience or pain, which I could not do before. (Signed) HENRY COE.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF THE GRAVEL, AND A MOST DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT.

SIR,—A Mr. Thomas Clark, a Settler at Lake George, for a considerable time seriously afflicted with a Complaint of the Liver, together with the Gravel. His medical attendants, after trying all their professional skill, candidly told him that his case was hopeless, and any further efforts useless. In this situation, and when expecting every day would terminate his existence, a friend recommended him to try Holloway's Pills, and as a forlorn hope he did so, the first dose gave him considerable relief, he therefore persevered in taking them according to the directions, and is now restored to perfect health. He will feel great pleasure in confirming this statement, or even make an affidavit to the same effect, should it be required. (Signed) WILLIAM JONES,

Proprietor of the Goulburn Herald, New South Wales.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

PURE EXTRACT OF ROCK ROSE.

FOR all cases of Scrofulous Diseases, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Sick Headache, Canker & Nursing Sore Mouth, General Debility, &c. &c. No Medicine has ever been discovered which has proved so effectual in the cure of these complaints as the Rock Rose. Thousands of persons who have been afflicted with the above named diseases, as the Rock Rose, Myers' Extract is an elegant preparation, perfectly save, and a wonderfully efficacious remedy. The extraordinary Medicinal properties of the Rock Rose Plant, have become known to some of the most eminent Medical practitioners of the country; others are fast becoming acquainted with its healing virtues, and desire to have it more extensively known and used.

The following is an extract from a note on the title page of a work published by D. A. Tyler, M. D., New Haven, Conn. on the efficacy of Rock Rose. These pages were penned without any expectation of their ever being presented to the public—inc which time the plant (Rock Rose) under consideration has been more fully tested its virtues developed, and their character more fully established. They are published by with the consent of several medical friends. The object of this dessertation is to lay before the members of the profession and the public, the virtues of a plant too much neglected which undoubtedly (as an order member of the profession once remarked to me) possessed far more attractive hours than the popular sarsaparilla. I ask for the plant an impartial trial."

ITS MEDICAL HISTORY AND PROPERTIES

Are far the most important, since upon these depends its value to the community. Dr. Loudon says, that in 1799, it was so valuable in England, that it was cultivated from seeds. Ever since 1806.

PROF. IVES, OF YALE COLLEGE,

Has habitually used it with great success in Scrofula, and Chronic Distase, and through him its virtues were made known until, as Dr. Tyler says, "it is now in this section (New Haven) a common article in domestic practice, for the cure of Scrofula and cutaneous diseases." Dr. Whitlaw, a Scotch botanist of notoriety, while traveling in America, in 1814, learned its use in Canada. Returning to England, he employed it in medicating his baths, when became greatly celebrated for the cure of similar diseases.

DR. PARISH, OF PHILADELPHIA.

Remarks that it has been successfully used in bad cases of Scrofulous Diseases.

DR. J. H. THOMPSON, OF THE SAME PLACE,

Prescribed it in bad cases of Scrofulous patients at Wells' Hospital. His success attracted the attention of senior physicists. He reports the following remarkable cases of White Swelling of the right hip, in February, 1844. The lad was seven years old, and had the disease for three years. The bone was dislocated upward and outward. There was a large opening on the hip leading to the bone, into which I could thrust my finger. I counted twelve ulcers. He had been under several physicians, who had given him up. I ordered a decoction of the Rock Rose. In two days his night sweats ceased; I then ordered a tea spoonful of the tincture of Rock Rose, three times a day. Thirty-nine days after he was entirely well.

For sale by Druggists Generally, where Circulars and Certificates of cases may be obtained.
