

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

NEWS SUMMARY.

—Nathan Strand, of River Philip, about a large crowd last week.—Sent out.
—The Montreal death returns for last week show one death from grippe, the first for a long time.
—The Sun reports that St. John dealers have shipped to Albert county this season over 10,000 bushels of oats.
—The company prospecting for gold at Pointe à la Peste have located a one with the rock and sent it to England to be tested.
—Michael Melville, a well-known Halifax fish and commission merchant, died Tuesday night, after a lingering illness.
—La grippe is very prevalent in the four cities of British Columbia. In New Westminster it is almost an epidemic.
—The tenth annual Ontario Fat Stock show was held last week in Guelph, the entries being greatly in excess of any previous year.
—Sir Richard Cartwright, in an interview in Montreal Tuesday, said the Liberals had nothing to fear from the Parsons of Industry.
—Denis Bourgeois, it is said, has discovered gold at Fox Creek, Wallace. Some persons also think they have discovered gold at Fenwick.
—Michael Connolly says that neither his brother nor Mr. McGreevy were consulted about the petition to the Governor-General for their release.
—There is increasing agitation in Germany against the Russian and other commercial treaties, and against Chancellor von Caprivi personally.
—The Oxford Manufacturing Co. has been awarded a medal and diploma by the World's Fair judges for tweeds, homespun and flannels.
—The death of Thos. F. Raymond, the well-known proprietor of the Royal Hotel, St. John, occurred on 1st Friday evening. He was 73 years of age.
—Prof. John Watson, of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., is mentioned as a candidate for the honorary philosophy at Glasgow University in succession to Prof. Caird.
—The petitions circulated in Montreal in favor of executive clemency being exercised in the case of Messrs. Connolly and McGreevy are being largely signed.
—Capt. Burke, of the Canadian Tug Chain, is to receive a gold watch and chain from the American Government for rescuing the crew of an American tug in the Georgian Bay.
—It is stated that Prof. Tyndall's death was caused by an overdose of alcohol, which he was accustomed to take to alleviate his sufferings from indigestion, rheumatism and insomnia.
—A boy named Venca, a resident of Edinburgh, Scotland, has invented an apparatus for photographing pictures in transit with the aid of electricity.
—The epidemic of influenza in London is assuming alarming proportions. Seventy-four deaths last week in the city are attributed to the disease. One every fifteen on Tuesday was Vice and Strathallan.
—The British tropic Malabar has been disabled, and is being towed to Malta. This is the third of the four big trawlers disabled recently, a fact which caused the British Government to charter the steamship Bothnia in order to convey troops to India.
—It is reported that Sir William Harcourt, chancellor of the British Exchequer, is considering, among other expedients to meet the deficit in the budget, a proposal to place a tax of one penny on the shilling on theatre admissions.
—Delegates representing the Scotch coal miners met in Glasgow last week and made an offer to the masters to end the deadlock. The masters declined to entertain the proposition.
—Chinese pirates on the Tonquin coast have been reinforced by Siam soldiers. They now menace on all Europeans, especially the French. The Tonquin coast is in a state of terrorism. A serious war is probable. The pirates raided the town of Bac, tortured one Frenchman, securing a ransom; hanged another and are starving a third.
—The funeral of the late Dr. Power, Bishop of St. John's, on Tuesday, was a magnificent demonstration. Business was entirely suspended in the city till the funeral was over. The procession was the largest ever seen on the island. It was over one mile in length and composed of all classes and denominations.
—The Lehigh Valley strike has come to an end.
—The wreck of the British ship Jason, last Friday night, was on Tuesday, resulted in the loss of 26 of her crew.
—The official estimates sent to Congress ask for $411,579,061 for the fiscal year 1895, as against $421,612,216 for 1894.
—A New York World special from Rome gives an interview between Giuseppe M. Depew and the Pope. Mr. Depew says he found His Holiness vigorous physically and intellectually, of intense conviction, of great learning and absolute fairness. He emphasized the reciprocal relations between employer and employee, and the duty of each to the other, and said these obligations were sacred; without them the world would go to pieces.

December Is Here

And the fall is a thing of the past. We are clearing out a great lot of dress goods both plain and fancy.

We do not intend carrying over anything that a broken price will sell.

Those who have had our samples during the past week have been astonished at the reduced prices and have ordered freely.

Seize the opportunity of getting a winter dress at very low figure and write to us for samples at once.

Letter orders a specialty.

Deaths.

JOHNSON.—At Wolfville, Nov. 23, of hemorrhage of the lungs, Grace Hamilton, third daughter of the late George L. Johnson.
KILLEN.—At Esplan, on Dec. 1, Carrie I. Kilian, two years and three months old, youngest child of George and Annie Kilian. The Rev. C. M. Comfort was the officiating clergyman.
LORD.—At Trylon, P. E. I., on Nov. 5, of consumption, Lydia, beloved daughter of Philip C. and L. L. Lord. Sir Walter Lord was a devoted Christian and will be greatly missed by the Trylon church, of which she was a member. For her to live was Christ, but to die was gain.
SHERWOOD.—At Hammond, Vale, Kings Co., N. B., on the 28th of November, Frances, 7 1/2 of the late William Sherwood in the 72nd year of her age. For many years our sister had an unshaken hope in Christ, although she had been a humble follower of the meek and lowly Jesus, and although only a girl for four short days, yet she was willing to submit to Him "who doth all things well." The remains were taken to Halifax for interment. The funeral service was conducted by the pastor of the Hammond church, of which the deceased was a member.

There's a Bridge of Sighs at Venice, At Montreal a Bridge of Sighs; But Father's Emulation is the Bridge of Death. Watch all the men should prize.

AN IRISH FULL.—An Irish journal has this grand answer to a correspondent: "We desire to acknowledge the receipt of your post-card." Which is very much like the Corkonian who travelled into Kerry to an inviting enemy to "tell him to his face that he would treat him with silent contempt."
