

WHAT MAKES A GOOD COMPLEXION?

You are just about to commence the season's programme of evening parties, social events, etc. Why not look your best? Why let your complexion suffer by contrast with other ladies? Why not ensure a good complexion? You can do this on sound natural lines by using Zam-Buk, nature's herbal balm.

Zam-Buk is a skin food; and complexion is purely a matter of skin health. Zam-Buk smeared lightly over the face, each night, acts as a skin tonic. It stimulates the cells beneath the cuticle to healthy action, makes the capillaries and blood vessels work, and the vigorous circulation, thus started, carries away secreted impurities. Waxy, yellow deposits are thus removed. Hard pimply growths are softened and disappear.

That yellow tinge gives place to the pink of health, and the white velvety "look" and "feel" which healthy skin should have.

Isn't this wiser than relying upon talcum powder and cosmetics? These only put on a "complexion" from the outside. It doesn't last. Zam-Buk helps nature to build up a complexion from blood and tissue. It lasts! It won't rub off!

Be wise as well as womanly! Let Zam-Buk help you to look your real best!

Zam-Buk cures skin diseases, pimples, ulcers, abscesses, blood-poison, eruptions, eczema, scalds, chapped places, scalp sores, piles, etc. 50¢ box, all drug stores and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

COMMENT ON CAREER OF BRUCE M'DOUGALL

Veteran Editor of Chatham World Saw Good in Late Publisher of Free Speech—Misguided Sense of Humor

(Chatham World.) The accidental death of C. Bruce MacDougall, at Sydney, Wednesday evening, by falling down stairs and breaking his neck, closes the somewhat stormy career of a clever but erratic and unwise writer and publisher. Mr. MacDougall's sense of humor harmonized with that of the country correspondent who delights in stabbing his neighbors with covert allusions and insinuations that touch them on the raw, and he published papers that were filled with the contributions of such cattle.

He thought they were funny, and the papers he published would buy the papers. He began with The Morning Star, when he was a lad. That was suppressed, or ceased to pay, and was followed by the Plain Dealer, which was succeeded by his best known paper, Free Speech. He was condemned by a St. John court without evidence to prove the offences of libelling public men and publishing obscene matter, and was sent to jail for eleven months.

The trial was notoriously unfair, and the verdict was not based on the evidence adduced but on the strictures of the judge, the chief of the attorney General, and disapproval of the defendant's style of journalism. The publisher began publication soon after MacDougall's release, and the bush-shaking scoundrel correspondent soon came to the front in its columns.

Wherever the paper had such correspondents, to supply a weekly batch of personalities of a more or less rasping character, the paper had a big sale. Its Sydney and Glace Bay correspondents served up so much spicy stuff of an odoriferous kind that its sales there were enormous, and police methods were employed for its suppression.

The publisher, whose aim was to keep within the law, and who was sure he had not violated it, went to Cape Breton to fight the matter out in the courts. He was assailed in the street, in Sydney, by three or four men, Monday night, and he was beaten or he would have come back to Moncton that night. Poor MacDougall!

He wasn't a bad fellow at heart, was clever and courageous, and was animated by a sincere desire to benefit the public, but his methods were such as to do more harm than good. His sense of humor was diseased. He not only had no respect for persons, which may be a virtue in a journalist, but he had no respect for the tenderest and most sacred feelings of the men and women he attacked for real or supposed offences against public morals.

His methods were as heartless as those of the eminent criminal lawyers who pluck out the hearts of their victims, and he was a merciless and unrelenting exposure of all their weaknesses and follies to the derision of a gaping public. If he had been caught young by a newspaper publisher, and trained to distinguish between legitimate news and comments and illegitimate personalities, he might have become one of the most enterprising and successful newspaper writers of the continent. He had the genius for writing pungent paragraphs of personal interest that has made many journalists famous.

OBITUARY.

Katherine Hackett.

Newcastle, N. B., Nov. 21.—Miss Katherine Hackett, daughter of Wm. Hackett, Barnaby River, passed away this morning at four o'clock at the home of her brother-in-law, Leonard Savage. Deceased was 32 years of age and was taken ill only a short time ago. She was a devoted wife and mother, and a very kind and generous person. She is survived by her father, five sisters and two brothers. A funeral will be held at the residence of Leonard Savage, Barnaby River, on Thursday, November 24th, at 2 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Barnaby River for interment.

Katherine O'Shea.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O'Shea informed the loss of Sunday of their infant daughter, Katherine, who had been born at the Hotel Dan for treatment. The funeral took place this afternoon from their residence, Seaville.

Call to the Order.

The executive of the King's Daughters will consider it a favor if all members of the order will send to the Guild something for the fire service at the celebration. They expect to receive good wearing apparel and bedding and wish to send the balance next week.

The flavor of Estabrooks' Coffee is always the same, because its quality never varies. If you picked one tin out of a hundred the coffee inside would be the same as in the other ninety-nine—rich, fragrant, temptingly good.

WEDDINGS.

Fowler-Fraser.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at Chipman, Queens County, on November 19th, at the residence of the bride's father, Isaac C. Fraser, when his eldest daughter, Margaret May, was united in marriage to Henry B. Fowler, mechanical foreman of the Central Railway. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding march played by her sister, Miss Martha Fraser, and took up her position by the side of the groom under an evergreen arch. The marriage ceremony was conducted by Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, B. D., of St. John, in the presence of only of the immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will reside in Chipman.

ALL MUST ANSWER AT JUDGMENT SEAT

Dr. Torrey in Impressive Sermon Declares Day of Judgment is Sure—Christ Presides at Tribunal.

Dr. Torrey preached on the Judgment Day, last evening. His text was from Acts 17:31, as follows: "God now commandeth all men everywhere to repent; because He hath appointed a day, in which He will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom He hath ordained; whereof He hath given assurance unto all men, in that He hath raised him from the dead."

There are, he said, two events in the future which are absolutely certain. First of all, it is absolutely certain that Jesus Christ is coming again to receive His people unto Himself, and to reward them according to their works; and in the second place, it is absolutely certain that Jesus Christ is coming again to judge the world. I know that some say the Lord Jesus Christ will come back again, and receive His waiting and faithful people unto Himself, and I know that there is going to be a judgment day of the world.

The judgment day is the subject for our thoughts tonight.

In the days of Noah men laughed at the idea that God would send a flood; but the flood came and swept them all away.

In the days of Lot, men of Sodom laughed at the idea that God would send fire and brimstone out of heaven and destroy Sodom and Gomorrah and the other cities of the plain; but the fire and brimstone fell and these cities were blotted out.

In the days of Jeremiah, the people of Jerusalem laughed at Jeremiah's predictions that Nebuchadnezzar would come and lay Jerusalem waste, and that Jerusalem would be a dust and its temple, but it all came to pass just as God said, and just as Jeremiah believed and predicted.

In the days of Jesus Christ, men laughed at Christ's prediction that the armies of Rome, under Titus and Vespasian would lay Jerusalem's walls even with the ground, and that calamity would overtake the proud city; but historians outside the Bible tell us that it all came to pass just as Christ predicted, and that Jerusalem was overtaken with the most appalling siege in the world's history.

All of God's prediction of judgment on individuals and nations in the past have come true to the very letter in spite of all the false hopes that were held out by false prophets.

Judgment Day Certain.

Wicked men may laugh at the thought of a Judgment Day—but they can't laugh it away. God has said there will be a day when all men shall be judged—and He does not lie. God has given us a guarantee of a Judgment Day, which we cannot deny, the resurrection of Christ from the dead.

God has appointed a day to judge the world in righteousness. It will be a judgment for the rich man and the poor man, the bad man and the good man. Men may escape human courts, but they cannot escape God's court. At the millennium, the dead will be raised and every person in this world will be called before the Great White Throne. There will be no escape for anyone. Every infidel, every hypocrite, every denier of Christ, will have to meet Him at the great tribunal.

At the Judgment Day, we will have to answer for all the deeds of the flesh—good or bad. The deeds of the body will be the basis of Christ's judgment. No deed done in the body can be hidden from Christ. We may fancy that we have concealed our sins from the world, but we cannot conceal them from Christ. The secret things will be judged especially, the things done under cover of night. God knows all things, and the world will know them at the day of final judgment. Also, we will be judged for all the words we speak, and for all the thoughts that we think. We will have to answer for every word, however idle or carelessly spoken. But the great basis of the Judgment Day will be what we do with Jesus Christ. This will be the great question.

The Great Question.

Jesus Christ will preside at the final tribunal at the Great White Throne—Jesus Christ, Whom men have despised and despised and despised. Every man will have to appear before Him—whether he has served Him or cast Him down. The man who was called on the cross of Calvary will judge the world—the whole world.

What will be the issue of the Judgment Day? It will be either eternal peace, eternal glory—or eternal despair, eternal darkness, eternal suffering. The decree pronounced at this judgment will be eternal and final. There will be no appeal.
