NARROW ESCAPE FROM AWFUL DEATH

Boat Edward P. owned and

by the Edward Partington and Paper Co. lies at the bottom of a reversing falls, and the three men who constituted her crew narrow and thrilling escape death in the waters Saturday ing about eight o'clock when she

at the pitch coming through, fill-and sank in a very few moments.

she had left her moorings at In-ows and was coming through the eddies of the falls in the small boat for the work of the day, in charge of Captain Blanchard Peris. She met the pitch of the tide a little distance above the bridges and it may be that her propeller struck a rock and became immovable or dropped.

A large hole must have been ripped in her bottom for in a very few minutes it was seen by those on board that the water was pouring in at an alarming rate.

The crew realized the danger and quickly loosed the small boat from the cabin top. The three of them—Captain Peris, Engineer John Cowie, and

Wm. Legatt—managed to get away from the sinking tow-boat just a few minutes before she went down and made their way through the whirling

IMPROVEMENTS IN NORTH END THEATRE

New Ticket Office and other Features added to Equipment.

Spring improvements in the order of the day with the Star Theatre in the North End. A new and prettily finished ticket box has been placed near the street entrance giving additional room in the hall way. Those long side walls as you enter from the street are gradually filling up with handomely framed enlarged photos of the most popular actresses and actors that appear on the Star's screen.

A very brilliant transparency designed to represent the blue sky with the big north star surrounded by numerous smaller stars with suitable wording has been placed on one of the glass panes of the big show case outside the theatre door. A flag pole is to be erected next week that will soar a Union Jack floating in the breeze from the highest point in the North End.

Painters and carpenters are touching up a few extras and with the big improvements in December of the interior the little North End Star is bound to shine. Easter Monday opens at 2.30 with the big two-reel feature "The Flower of Destiny." The balance of the programme has been specially arranged for the Easter tide.

MANY FINE NUMBERS FOR LYRIC PATRONS

Vaudeville and Picture will Entertain the Easter Crowds.

Both in the vaudeville and picture department the Lyric Theatre will excel this week as the management has made a special effort to secure attractions worthy of the celebration of Easter week.

The first half will be devoted to the modern duo Foley and Melding who will submit the latest spring styles of the different dances with jolly Easter melodies. Foley and Melding have been meeting with much success in their line of work which is novel and cannot help but find favor. The Ma-jestic Co. will be seen in a sterling two part drama of the viles of the underworld entitled "The Thief and the Book." One might be justified in calling this photo play a modern version of "Oliver Twist," except for the fact that electricity plays an important part in the story. The Weekly News, always a feature at this house the Lyric for some time. The picture program embraces four excellent subjects.

For Thursday, Friday and Saturday Miss Marion Cornell will present in quick costume changes, unique dances and musical comedy song numbers, with Mr. Harry Layton who is styled the funny man who creates smiles that won't wear off. This combination is expected to prove as strong and as worthy an offering seen at the Lyric for some time. The picture program embraces four excellent subjects.

NEWS-PICTORIAL FOR THE GEM THEATRE

Pictures of Merit Secured for the Holiday Week—Another Cleek Picture to.

A new feature has been billed for the Gem Theatre, a series of current interest, the first of which will be shown next Wednesday and Thursday. It is the new Hearst-Selig News-Pictorial which will be presented on the same days each week in the future. The events chronicled in the pictures are shown in a fascinating manner and are of more than passing concern. In addition to this most successful feature for this week's programme there are several others. On today and Tuesday will be shown "A Million in Jewels," a Kalem two-part production with a strong cast, a story of Oriental life and an adventure in an eastern dynasty, and to west from a charming Indian princess her immense inheritance. It is pleasingly tinged with romance and adventure. On Wednesday and Thursday, besides the Hearst-Selig News-Pictorial there will be presented "The Masked Dancer," a drama of Mexico. It is a story of a young mining engineer who becomes infatuated with a Spanish dancer but who is won back to his proper realization of right by the strategy of his faithful and pretty young wife.

Another Cleek picture, No. 4 in the popular series will be shown on Friday and Saturday in which B. F. Wilson will appear in the solution of "The Mystery of the Ladder of Light." This is on a par with the three previous pictures in this set and should be received with as much favor. It is a story of a young scapegrace in London, a son of Sir Mawson Leake, who gets into financial trouble. A magnificent necklace is missed from his mother's dresser and his father attempts suicide in shame. Cleek of Scotland Yard, is called and solves the mystery of his disappearance.

With reliable old Nervine you can rub out the pain of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, or Neuralgia—rub it away so completely that you feel like new all over.

It matters not how deeply seated the pain is, or how long you have had it—rubbing with the king of all liniments "Nervine" will cure you.

Nervine is highly concentrated—about five times stronger than the ordinary white ammonia liniment—therefore it penetrates quickly—slinks in deep—and gets right at the core of the pain at once—draws out the lameness, takes away the stiffness—eases the joints that have hurt you so much.

Out comes the pain every time you rub on Nervine, which contains some of the most valuable pain-subduing remedies known to science. Worth its weight in gold to every family in the land, and sure to cure the emergent and minor ills of a hundred kinds that constantly arise. Get the large 50c family size bottle; small trial size 25c. Nervine is sold by every dealer, everywhere.
