GEORGE STANTON WON CUP.

At the regular weekly meeting of the I. L. and B. Society held last night the president, William Pyne, on behalf of the society presented to George Stanton a silver cup, being first prize in the pool tournament, and to E. Melanson a receipt for one year's dues for the society. An interesting feature of the tournament was that Mr. Stanton and Mr. Melanson tied for first place, the former winning in an exciting deciding game. The society concluded arrangements for the holding of an assembly in their rooms, Union street, on Monday evening, February 8th.

BASEBALL EVANGELIST WHO IS AROUSING PHILADELPHIA BY HIS UNIQUE PULPIT ORATORY AND PEPPERY SERMONS

"BILLY" SUNDAY DRIVING HIS POINTS HOME

"Billy" Sunday, twentieth century evangelist, one-time star base runner and centre fielder of "Pop" Anson's old White Sox, has the staid city of Philadelphia eating out of his hand. The kind of gospel the Reverend "Billy" is handing to Philadelphia is something quite new to that town, and probably to any other east of the Rocky Mountains, except those which he has already awakened and which have witnessed earlier what he calls "The Chautauque salute to God," with which he opens his extraordinary revival services. The huge tabernacle, which was built for the occasion, holds sixty thousand persons, and it is crowded to its capacity at every service. Here are a few samples of "Billy's" pulpit oratory that is arousing Philadelphia's religious fervor:

"The Clay and Webster and Calhoun and Douglas and Lincoln type of American citizen has been supplanted by the good for nothing, God forsaken, lick spittle, peanut headed, weasel eyed, whiskey soaked, rum guzzling, gin guzzling politicians of our day."

"Down here the devil has forced the issue, but the devil would have cold feet and pneumonia in twenty-four hours if we'd get busy and live the first twenty verses of the Sermon on the Mount."

"Some would-be Christians are so stingy that they would steal flies from a blind spider. There are others so stingy that they sing through their noses to save wear and tear on their false teeth."

front in the big European war that he did when in the ring. His career fighting for his country will be watched with as much interest, not only by the sports of Great Britain, but in this country as well.

He was a wonderful glove artist, and was declared the speediest boxer ever seen in the ring here. Not only was his style of boxing appreciated by the sports, but his unassuming way of conducting himself outside of the roped ring made him an idol—even in this country.

Those who saw him box Charley

Griffin, Matty Baldwin and Grover Hayes at the old Armory A. A. in 1908 and 1909 will never forget those bouts, because of the display that Driscoll made in the ring. It was the same story in the other American cities he boxed.

He is one of the few boxers who became the owner of a Lonsdale title belt, having won first featherweight honors in three successive battles. Not only in his native country, but in England as well, the people showered honors on him, and when he retired from the game to follow bookmaking, his success continued.

When the call to come to colors was made, Driscoll showed his loyalty by being one of the first to answer. He gave up his lucrative business when he could have remained at it. He joined the Welsh Fusiliers, a body of cavalrymen made up of the sturdy sons of Wales who are good horsemen.

Montreal, Jan. 27.—The Wanderers recently defeated the Shamrocks (formerly Ontarios) tonight by 4 to 1.

THISTLES VS. CARLETON
On Friday afternoon and evening the Thistles and Carleton clubs will curl the first match of a series for 1915.

OTTAWAS DEFEATED QUEBEC

Ottawa, Jan. 27.—The Ottawas struck a scoring streak in the second period of tonight's game, and defeated Quebec by a score of 7 to 2. They did not have to exert themselves after the first period.

The line-up:

Ottawa Goal. Quebec

Benedict Point. Moran

Merrill Coverpoint. Hall

Shore Centre. Mummery

Dartagh Right Wing. McDonald

Broadbent Left Wing. Marks

Gerard Crawford

EAST ST. JOHN GIRLS WON.

On Tuesday evening the East St. John girls' basketball team won a match from the St. Andrew's team.

The first half was played under the rules governing the girls' game, and finished with a score of 21 to 4 in favor of East St. John. The second half was played under the rules of the boys' game and resulted in a score of 12 to 7 in favor of East St. John, making the total score 33 to 11 in favor of East St. John. The following was the line-up of the teams:

East St. John. St. Andrews.

Olga Maceo (Capt.) Helen Woodrow

Mary Eckerbrecht Helen Wilson (capt. Centre)

Margaret Foley Florence McLean

Annie Woods Margaret Wallace

Mollie Eckerbrecht Annie Nixon

Maud Jasselyn Doris Woodrow

success continued.

CANADIANS GO DOWN BEFORE TORONTOS

Toronto, Jan. 27.—Canadians, who vanquished the Wanderers Saturday, were tonight beaten by Torontos at the Arena, 2 to 1. Although the score was close, the play all through was uninteresting.

The line-up:

Torontos—Goal, Holmes; point, Car-

enter; coverpoint, Cameron; centre, Forston; left wing, Walker; right wing, Wilson.

Canadians—Goal, Vezina; point, Du-

NEW GLASGOW WON MATCH FROM SYDNEY

New Glasgow, N. S., Jan. 27.—In a hard fought hockey game in the Arena tonight the New Glasgow team won out by a close shave from the Sydney Millionaires. A. J. Mann, of North Sydney, and Fred Sullivan, of New Glasgow, referred the game and had the players in hand. In the opening round the home team secured two goals, while Sydney only beat out Morrison for a single count. The middle period was all New Glasgow.

Toby MacDonald, their goal tender, set the puck slip by rim four times, while again Stonewall Morrison had only one count against him. This score of six to two gave the home lads a comfortable lead.

When the final period was started, the Sydneys got in their fine work, and by four goals they tied the count. The interest was intense when Appleton scored a final and winning goal for New Glasgow.

Wanderers 144; Shamrocks 4.

Montreal, Jan. 27.—The Wanderers recently defeated the Shamrocks (formerly Ontarios) tonight by 4 to 1.
