Ottawa, June 28—During the past week or two every Conservative paper in the country has been trying to make it appear that the opposition, with the aid of the senate, defeated the highways od bill, and thus prevented the expendi-ture of this money among the provinces. Exactly the opposite is the case. The opposition refused to approve of the highways oid bill, and the senate refused to pass it without amendment to bring it in accord with the constitution and to provide for proper distribution of the money according to population. The sovernment then refused to accept these fore, and killed the bill. But on June 5th, the day before par-

Olive Mundee, of age, and the victim of a lighting stroke on the evening of Monday, June 16, drank the poison to the last drop on Monday evening last and died a few hours later in the General Public Hospi-tal in terrible agony.

A move was at once made by the Liberal opposition to give the provinces the benefit of this distribution even Mrs. Mundee was a mere girl when she was married and she leaves three little children. The family had recently moved to Metcalf street and was happy there until the electric storm of only a few minutes duration swept the city two in the street hurrying home to comfort her little ones whom she feared might be frightened by the crashing of the thunder and was severely injured by lightning which left her in an uncon-scious state. Mrs. A move was at once made by the interes and of this distribution even though the highways aid bill were drop-ped by the government. Mr. Carvell pointed out that this money was badly needed by the prov-inces and that they should be given it, for this year Hon. Mr. Cochrane might vary the vote so as to make it an ordi-nary subsidy.
