

- War Secretary (UK), distribution of war orders, 68; Canadian troops required, 73, 120-21; use of 5th division, 157; 1902 Colonial Conference, Dominions contributions for Imperial defence, 230; 1907 Colonial Conference, principle of Imperial General Staff agreed to, 227, 227n; views expressed at 1909 Imperial Defence Conference (q.v.), 227-31, 241—see also Haldane, R. B., Dec. 5, 1905-June 10, 1912; Kitchener, Field Marshal Earl, Aug. 5, 1914-June 5, 1916—no reference by name to J. E. B. Seely (q.v.) as War Secretary, June 1912-Mar. 1914; H. H. Asquith, Mar. to Aug. 1914, or D. Lloyd George, July-Dec. 1916—see also War Office
- War Secretary (US), acquisition of land at Sault Ste. Marie, 394; Chicago drainage canal, 431n; naval militia, 829—see also War Department (US)
- Ward, Sir Joseph, Prime Minister of New Zealand, 1906-12, at 1907 Colonial Conference, 239, 249; at 1909 Imperial Defence Conference, 226; at 1911 Imperial Conference, 249-52, 250n, 251n, 276
- Warne, W. L., 219
- Washington, State of, fishing rights off B.C. coast, 388
- Washington, Treaty of, 1846, 403, 414, 443-44; 1871, 365-66, 403, 414, 443
- Watts, Lieut.-Col. G. W., 68
- Webster-Ashburton Treaty, 1842, 362, 365-66, 376, 420, 430, 432
- Webster claim, 802, 805, 812-13
- Wei-hai-wei, 708-9
- Welland Canal, 366, 839-40
- Welland River, 373
- West India and Panama Telegraph Co., 705n
- West Indies, general, German designs on, 56; Canadian forces in, 114-15; representation by trade commissioner in Canada proposed, 697
- Royal Commission, 1908, 703
- Royal Commission on trade relations between Canada and the West Indies, 1909-10: establishment of Commission, 677-79; terms of reference, 679-81, 693; definition of area to be studied, 680; reciprocity in lowering of tariffs, with identical treatment for British products, 680-81; adjustment of plans of Commission to meet difficulties of Canadian members, 681-83; Bermuda hoping to participate in trade arrangements, 682-83; report of Royal Commission, 678n, 684-85, 697; means proposed for implementing recommendations, 693-94; bearing of Royal Commission's work on German trade talks, 724
- trade conferences: preliminary conference in Barbados, 1908, 678n; 1910-12, preparations for conference in Canada, inquiry as to number of colonies wishing to negotiate trade agreement with Canada, 684-85; resolutions of individual colonies, 689-92; draft reciprocity agreement, 693-94; rights of individual colonies in relation to agreement, 680-81, 694; suggestions for organization of conference and powers of delegates, 689-90, 693-94; Canada accepts suggestions, 694-95; 1912 conference in Ottawa and Toronto, 680, 694-96, 696n, 704—main entries below under trade agreement, communications, steamship service
- trade agreement between Canada and nine colonial governments represented at conference (text), 697-700; reciprocal tariff concessions, 698-99; transportation arrangements, 699; provisions for approval of agreement, 696, 699-700; telegraphic summary, 700; UK to benefit from tariff concessions, 680, 690-92, 701, 709; consultation of British government on implementation, 704-5; trade situation in participating and non-participating colonies, 701-2 (see also Newfoundland, Canada-West Indies trade discussions); list of colonies outside agreement, 701-2; list of those included, 705, 712; concessions extended for three years to six non-adhering colonies, 708; extension to other British colonies, 706-9; ratification and going into effect, 711-12, 712n
- communications, proposed improvement of cable system, 681, 693; UK considering use of wireless telegraphy, 697; cheaper rates necessary for trade development, 702; text of conference resolution on cable system, 704; arrangements for improved, subsidized service, 705n
- steamship service, history of, 676n, 702-3, 710-11; one-year extension of con-