

effective than attempts to enforce the controls through extending jurisdiction to foreign subsidiaries or to goods and technology wherever located.

I am therefore hopeful that the U.S. authorities will take these views into account as they review the Export Administration Act.

For more detailed information, please contact:

Candice Rice
U.S. Trade and Economic Relations Division
Department of External Affairs
Telephone: 593-4153