

vey or operation to which it relates, and of the doings of the Surveyor, and the intention of the parties interested with regard to the same, shall be held to be authentic and valid, and shall have effect according to the tenor 5 thereof, whatever be the form in which the same may have been drawn up.