

Pub Nite

On Friday March 7, 1968 the Buttery was licenced to sell beer. These photographs represent the record of that historic occasion.

● If elected, I will not serve, if served I will drink like a fish.

● Liquor is a crutch.

● It's like this, only on your back.

● Student revolutionaries should be recognized as a Varsity team.

● Blow in my beer, and I'll follow you anywhere.
