

Second Revise

C 65691

8

by the feeling which we were creating toward Canada in Britain, by the widening and deepening of the channels of trade between Britain and Canada, effected in a manner which injured no Canadian industry or interest, just that avenue that was needed to maintain and to expand the market in Britain for Canadian wheat, which, as I have said, is more important than all else, in the circumstances I have mentioned, to the prosperity, present and future, of this dominion.

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers
Memoranda & Notes

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA