Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 26th ultimo, enclosing voucher No 153^d, amounting to $125⁰⁰, for a horse purchased for the Chadda Lake agency, from Mr. Inspector Macrae; and in reply, I beg to inform you that the same cannot be paid, until a report is received from a competent and disinterested person, a satisfactory opinion, if procurable in the locality, being expressed as to the soundness and age of the horse.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant
