

VIEWS OF THE CRITICS.

DAILY MAIL.—Uncommon quality of genuine humour. . . .

The fun was prodigious.

DAILY EXPRESS.—A deliciously funny satire.

DAILY TELEGRAPH.—Successful. . . . Amusing. . . . Must be seen.

STANDARD.—Keeps the huge theatre in ripples of laughter.

DAILY CHRONICLE.—Better than usual. . . . Ingenious. . . .

You must go to the Coliseum and find out for yourself.

EVENING NEWS.—Complete success. . . . Genuinely humorous. . . . Most delightful humour. . . . The audience was convulsed.

TOWN TOPICS.—That rara avis, a really funny sketch. Kept the house delightedly giggling all the time.

STAGE.—The most wittily written sketch of the several Mr. Hawtrey has given us.

QUEEN.—Should prove a big success.

SUNDAY HERALD.—A delicious farce. . . . Plums of wit. . . .

Spiritualism is more genially and wittily burlesqued than ever before.

OBSERVER.—Another good thing!
