

1st. Because these envelopes scatter the truth, where it otherwise would not reach, and in a novel manner, which arrests the attention of all classes—saints, sinners, formalists, Jews, Catholics, etc. They are read and re-read while passing through the mails. We estimate that a 1000 of them preach to at least 4,000 readers!

2nd. An envelope with a tract printed on it costs no more for postage than if it was plain; thus postmen are made to turn tract distributors free of charge.

3rd. Because all profits derived from the sale of these envelopes are invested in Salvation tracts, and the gratuitous distribution of the RADICAL CHRISTIAN among such as are unable to subscribe, so by their use you may do great good for little or no expense.

Recommendations of the Press.

Some of them we have seen are in good shape to do good, convenient, and cheap.—The Highway.

Brother Sims issues several kinds of printed envelopes, really Christian tracts. Good.—Christian Harvester.

They are well adapted to do good. Order from him, and thus aid our brother in practicing salvation in Canada.—Free Methodist.

They are beautiful and useful, neatly printed over with Scriptural quotations and striking truths.—Highway of Holiness.
