ALL RUBBER GOODS...

We buy our rubbergoods at frequent intervals direct from the manufacturers.

We do this for THREE REASONS:—

1—We want reliable goods.

2—We want fresh goods

3—We want to save all the cost we can for customers.

Rubber goods of inferior quality are about the dearest articles that can be bought. Here you get grades of assured reliability —you know they are fresh, and you get them at the most reasonable prices.

KNOWS MR. COLE

Ab. Merrill, of the Merrill House, is much interested in the horrible murder at Brantford, an account of which is published elsewhere in this paper.

Mr. Merrill was personally acquainted with Peter Cole, the father of the murdered girl, having worked with him in the same shop for 18 years.

"Peter Cole is a fine man," said Mr. Merrill to The Planet this morning. "and his daughter was one of the prettiest little girls I ever saw." It was certainly a horrible crime, and I am sure that if Mr. Cole ever comes face to face with the murderer he will shoot him instantly."

SPLENDID ADDRESS

After the regular lodge business was over at Court Hope of the Ancient Order of Foresters last evening a very pleasant social time was held. The feature of the evening was an address on his travels by Dr. G.
T. McKeough, and the only fault the Foresters found with it was it was too short.

After the program was concluded light refreshments were served. The program: Chairman's address—E. R. Putnam.
Address—Dr. McKeough.
Song—Dr. Russell.
Instrumental trio—Messrs. Morris-son, Side and Wrigley.
Brass trio—Gonne, Bowers and Sullivan.

The A. O. F. orchestra furnished fine music for the rest of the evening. All present report a good evening's entertainment.

RIOTING AT BUDAPEST.

Strikers and Police in Conflict, and Many People Hurt.

Budapest, Oct. 1.—A sanguinary encounter between the police and striking car men took place. Revolvers were used on both sides, and many persons were wounded, several of them mortally. Fifty arrests were made. The collision was due to an attempt of the strikers, about 2,000 men, to prevent non-strikers from working, and to the strikers attacking the yards of the carriers.

Marriage Licenses in Canada.

London, Oct. 1.—A correspondent of The Imperial Colonist, relating the romance of a young couple falling in love on the voyage to Canada, says no young girl should come to Canada without protection of some sort. The Leader, referring to the matter, says the ease with which marriage licenses can be procured in Canada is stated to be one of the pitfalls waiting the unwary girl emigrants to the west.

MILNER HAS REFUSED.

Will Not Accept the Colonial Secretaryship.

London, Oct. 1.—The Associated Press understands that Lord Milner has refused to accept the Colonial Office portfolio. Premier Balfour is expected to make an announcement to this effect at the luncheon at Sheffield.
The Conservative press is emphatic in regretting the protracted Cabinet crisis. The Standard says:—"Until the Cabinet crisis is ended business men everywhere will be filled with undefined apprehensions. Even in Wall street, much more than in London, a termination to the crisis would be welcomed with a sense of general relief.
The procrastination does not assist the Ministry to recover its shaken prestige."

THREE MEN KILLED.

A Terrible Accident on the Railway Near Stratford.

Stratford, Oct. 1.—A dreadful accident occurred on the G. T. R. yesterday by which three men lost their lives. Another man was injured, but not seriously.

This morning about 9 o'clock two lorries, containing some twenty men, left the station here for Sebringville to construct a siding and evidently did not remember that the Goderich train had not come in. The party comprised five men from Parkhill, two from Lucan, three from Granton, four miles from St. Mary's Junction, and five from Ailsa Craig, and had reached the bridge on John street, near which there is a curve in the track, which prevents an approaching train from being seen.
Before the train rushed around the curve one of the men, O. Ingie, of Parkhill, jumped, hurting his arm, but otherwise escaping injury. The men on the first lorry jumped, also taking the alarm, and so did all but three on the second. These were Henry Holmes, Malcolm McLean and Neil McIntyre, all of Ailsa Craig. They were killed instantly. Holmes was caught under the engine and dragged half the length of the bridge, being literally cut to pieces. McLean was hit on the head and thrown against the stonework of the bridge, his brains being knocked out. McIntyre apparently jumped, but was struck on the side of the head and almost instantly killed.

A NOVEL FEATURE

The Ladies' Assisting Society of the Public General Hospital met at the residence of Mrs. Kingsmill last evening for the purpose of arranging for the Public General Hospital Benefit. There were present at the meeting—Mrs. W. E. Rispin, Mrs.
Kingsmill, Mrs. Will Taylor, Mrs. J.
C. Pritchard, Mrs. Sam. Glenn, Miss Marion Fleming, and Messrs. W. E.
Rispin, James Scott Gray and Joseph Hadley. Mrs. W. E. Rispin presented the report of the ladies who had energetically canvassed the morchants. The latter had promised the ladies their hearty support. It is proposed to represent on the stage some feature of the business of the different merchants of the city. The scenes presented will be both bright and amusing. The services of W. W.
Seane have been secured as stage manager, so that the friends of the hospital may look for something very bright and entertaining.
