

training which may fit them for any pursuit to which, on their quitting school, circumstances may direct them. A departure therefore from the regular course of study will be discouraged and the request, too often originating in idleness, for permission to relinquish one or more studies under pretext of devoting increased time and attention to others, will be acceded to only in cases where unusual dullness or backwardness coupled with limited time may, after conferring with the parent, seem to the Rector to make such a departure from the regular course really desirable.

The class rooms are always open to visitors, and parents having sons at the school are earnestly invited to frequent intercourse with the masters so as to aid in securing that industry and good order which are essential to progress. The classes are visited periodically by a committee of the Governors and, in future, a master will remain at the school during the interval hour at noon, to see that proper order is maintained in the play-ground. The new building is in a healthy, airy situation and has convenient interior arrangements with those modern improvements which secure proper warmth and ventilation.
