GRAND COUNCIL OF THE CATHOLIC MUTUAL BENEFIT² ASSOCIATION OF

CANADA. Grand Sceretary's Office, London, Out, July 23, 1892. Notice is hereby given that the eighth Convention of the Grand Conneil of the Cath-olie Mutual Benefit Association of Canada will be held in the city of Hamilton, Out, commencing on Tuesday, August 30, 1892. Officers and representitives will assemble at C. M. B. A. hall at 9 o'clock A, m., on the above date, and proceed in a body to High Mass, which will be celebrated in St. Mary's cathedral at 10 o'clock. After Mass the Conneil will assemble at St. Mary's hall for roll call and formal opening of the conven-tion. JOHN A. MACCAEE, LL. D., Grand President. SAMUEL R. BROWN.

Grand Secretary.

Grand Secretary. In our issue of 20thJuly appeared anjarticle headed "Registration of the Grand Council of the Catholic Mutual Henefit Association." We have been asked if the statements in that article are correct. We received our information from one who was present during the hearing of the case before the Registrar. J. Howard Hunter LL., D., In-readers can rely upon its accuracy. Dr. MacCabe, Grand President of the C. M. B. A., appointed F. R. Latchford, Esq., Barrister, Ottawa, to look after the interests of the Grand Council, and as Mr. Latchford is conversant with every particular, we would refer those who doubt our statements to him, and we shall willingly withdraw anything in the article that Mr. Latchford says is readers reliable C. M. B. A. mformation.

readers reliable C. M. B. A. mformation. The Ontario "Insorance Corporations Act" of 1892 will necessitate so many changes in the C. M. B. A. constitution, and in the Beneficiary Certificate, and various blank forms of the association, that we think it will be slmost impossible for the Supreme Conneil and the Grand Council of Canada to work together as heretofore. The Supreme Conneil must either adopt a constitution in harmony with the statutes here or have one constitution for Canada and a differ-ent one for the United States. The Beneficiary Certificates cannot be alike. The work of the Grand Council of Canada from that of the other Grand Councils. What, then, will become of the much vaunted "The Supreme President's duty is to see that the work and discipline of the association gverywhere are uniform?"

The Grand Council of Canada is the only C. M. B. A. body that has any legal status here; therefore, as their obligations are great, the officers of that Council should see that the Constitution, to be used here, is what it should be, and that all parts of the machin-ery be so arranged as to enable them to com-ply with our law and carry out their obliga-tions. No foreign power can interfere in their carrying out the laws of this country.

Mr. O. K. Fraser has been requested by a number of his friends to allow himself to be placed in nomination for the presidency of the Grand Council of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Canada for the ensuing term, and we understand he has consented.

Two Questions.
