@ IN THE RELIGIOUS WORLD

MORE MEN NEEDED

Rev. Mr. Bartlett Urges Young

People to Emulate Example of Joachim

Rev. Mr. Bartlett, field secretary for Mr. Bartlett's text for the evening service was taken from the 27th chap verse: "Joachim became mighty be Joachim was the tenth king of A man who is not greater than his

"Don't let your thoughts reach out

There are many fathers and mothers who have made prophecies about their little boys and who longed to have

If we would measure up to these cases we must have those principles out of which might is to be developed.

The secret of Joachim's greatness was not in his position as ruler, but in his own heart. The fault with young people of today is that they are not willing to pay the price. It requires self-denial to obtain physical strength which is of the greatest value. Young men should allow nothing that will sap

A weakness of many of our young men is that they have not sufficient moral back-bone. They are too easily satisfied. Our young men and women

The Epworth League sets the highest standard of living before our young have not a sufficiently high ideal of people. Young men and women should must elaborate the standard and church leaders must set the pace in that determines the value of a man o

The second part of the text suggested that Joachim was mighty through his faith. We must have within us the

The great need of Canada of Canadian commerce, politics and society is more man rather than more men.

will have a better country and cleaner

Joachim became mighty by preparshould each one of us prepare our way tomorrow to meet the difficulties and What we need to make us mighty is Eloquent Appeal on Behalf of Missions by Rev. E. E.

Scott of Montreal

The pulpit of Centenary Methodist church was vesterday occupied both morning and evening by Rev. E. E.

Scott, pastor of the Dominion Square

Methodist church of Montreal, Mr.

Scott's evening sermon was on mis-

He took his text from I. Cor., 15-25:

"And he must reign until he has put shattered empires .but Christ's kingdom will stand firm as the throne of

He showed that the gospel answers the instructive cry of humanity. There are 9,000,000 people in the South Sea Islands waiting for the gospel, and there are pagans enough in South Africa to fill /75 cities as large as Toronto.

In Japan during fifty years 60,000 converts were made by Protestant mis-tionaries, but in that short time 7,000,- In closing the speaker said that it was paganized money in the churches

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES

HALIFAX, March 29.-Jos. Nangle ged 17, the youth who fell into a vat of holling water at the Woodside sugar refinery on Friday night, died at the hospital on Saturday night without re-000 have been born into paganism.

sions and was most impressive.

all enemies under his feet.".

woman in the sight of God."

might to say "no."

temptations of the day.

the inward spirit of God.

politics.

their strength to become a habit.

of covetousness."

character.

RELIGION IN THE HOME

Rev. Daniel J. O'Sullivan In St. Patrick's Church, Montreal institutions, the spirit of Christ is

"See," said the preacher, "that God world. What standard do you apply in tolerate company at your house, or cases to the perversion of your souls?

What kind of literature and what kind of conversation do you permi in your home circle, and are you carried away with the reflection that we must be broad-minded and cast

"Make yours a truly Christian home where God holds the first place.

would give up all those foolish dream of worldly success for the grand assurevils that were in their midst. Let them rally round the brave men and serving the name she had on the continent of being the nursery of vice for Europe Talk of France, Spain, South America-we could match them, and if try would carry it off. He spoke these thing that could happen to any man would be to be treated by Christ with

ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Commenting on Protestant Church ex-that city's population, the Congregationalist under the title. "Ireland has taken Boston." says. "Of Boston's 595.

380 inhabitants 410,695, considerably more than two-thirds are of foreign within less than 10,000 as many as the native born Americans. In eleven of The New Freeman has the following:

natural St. Patrick would find himself

The Archbishops of the United States will hold their annual meeting at the

The German Catholic bishops have issued a collective pastoral letter to the clergy, emphasizing the condem-

Dr. Henry Henry (63), Roman Catholic Bishop of Down and Connor, died suddenly while presiding at a sacred Paris is being greatly moved by the preaching of Mgr. Rozier. Beginning his series of sermons on Ash Wednes-words, "Remember, man, that thou turn," he pointed out the insignificance of the physical as compared with the of the earth and at the same time a great and shining planet-man is dust day, he opened with the imperative nation in the last Papal Encyclical.

Catholic University, Washington,

Wednesday, May 6.

concert in Belfast eleome he would be!

the twenty-five wards the Irish are in parentage. The Irish alone are 174.770

Boston, an Irish City

About St. Patrick

ance that the soul of your friend is a away silly prejudices?"

ROMAN CATHOLIC PULPH

The Sin of Herod, The Disgrace of Society

Rev. Bernard Vaughan-London.

mons in London, attacking the sins of must end-in the bottomiess pit. He society have lately been a feature, was there to warn them against those

They would remember, he said, how the pure women of England who were that, after his marriage, Herod made, trying to save our country from dethe Baptist to preach to him. It prize for vice, he believed this coun-perience—as society papers said that words because he loved his God and even nowadays people came to hear a loved his country, and it was playing preacher just to be entertained. If the to Christ the part of Herod. The worst ous, diabolical intrigue—it could not be 8. The Catholics far outnumber Pro-this frivolous life, this longing to see each claim St. Patrick of their house-wand and enchant them. They might is a dwarfish farce. Just imagine how drunken whirl it was! And when they bishop's robes and staff-and, then, re not looking to their souls speedily, quite moved by the great preacher.

Disclaiming the idea that he pos- tempt to overthrow His throne, There sessed any greater powers than the was also the lesser degree of antagondevoted pastors of St. Patrick's, the ism which consisted in the rejection preacher declared that often a strange of all or a part of the truths which voice has greater effect upon hearers. God has imposed upon the family and God made use of all kinds of means society. There was a third degree of and sometimes the bad, the high and ing out enterprises, good in themselves, the lowly, the learned and the un- but without any motive to save souls. med-all of these were instruments This applied to certain systems of in the hands of God to accomplish His education which, while good as far as own ends. There are special times, they go, do not contain the spirit of too, when God seems to favor His peo- Christ. In the establishment of hosple with special graces. One of these pitals, asylums and other charitable was certainly the season of Lent. Let each man and woman present consider sometimes lost sight of in the one dethat this might be the only season of sire to see the institution prosper maenitence left for many in the conterially. Let parents apply themselves to the cultivation of the spirit of ingly interesting article on conscious and unconscious plagianism, prints the may be the last for me, perhaps for all surroundings and thoughts of the chilus, but one thing is certain it will dren should be impregnated with the be the last for a large number of those spirit of Jesus Christ. present. Consequently it behooves us all to make use of the grace's now of- does not occupy a second place in the family or that God is not made subferad to us."

Many means of grace and pardon servient to temporal success in the were within their grasp, but the preacher suggested that perhaps the your homes? Are you looking to the most effective as well as the most moral uplifting of your household. agreeable during this holy season of or is it the prestige of your children Lent was to make their homes more at some school or university that Christian and truly Christ like. The gives you the most concern? Do you home is the first sanctuary where the parents in the exercise of the first priesthood of God teach their children to know God. The home was the aid of the school and the church, for what would church and school be without the aid of the teachings of Christian that we live in a Christian land in the midst of Christian civilization. That s true, insomuch as the spirit of peramount in the home, the children who went forth from them would not be equipped to go forth to attend the schools and churches.

een the spirit of evil and the parit of God were touched upon. There were, in the world, men who hated God and who, like Lucifer of old, devoted their lives and the intelligence which God had given them, to an at- the home for the salvation of souls.

preached a few Sundays ago on "The Sins of Herod the Disgrace of Society.

love to his brother's wife, and soon found an excuse, as easily as people did newadays of putting away his first wife. This jaded voluptuary, in order would be an interesting, a novel ex-

Lord were to come to London today."

much talked about; we must have Him.

They say He is such a wonderful worker, and some kind of a magician besides. So we must have Him, and I am quite sure He could not refuse"

-and so society-which represented

Herod-would be very desirous to see Jesus, because it had heard a good deal about Him and was in hopes of seeing a miracle. It certainly would not meet Him for the sake of truth, for He had sent the truth before Him, and they had brushed it aside. Society at best at very best-was a poor, petty, paltry show. At very best, society-for pear they were prepared to spend four or five hours a day getting ready, and a couple of hours in getting themselves undone—was a petty, paltry show for come into this world that they might find some spring-board from which to leap into the Everlasting Arms. At truth? What did society care for Jesus Christ? Read what the press said. It said that society was utterly indifferent to anything that was preached from any pulpit. It merely came for well want something to change their lives, for what a glddy, dissipated.

had stopped whirling and got outside, what was left to them? Were they purer, braver, nobler or holier? If they were not, what was the good of it? He should have thought they had plenty of things to drag them down hellwards without going in search of companions to help them on the road. They were told all sorts of evils were becoming prevalent-blindness, with skin and bone and nervous disorders, locomotor ataxia, and such diseases, were coming over the land like a growing ulcer, and this was the output of people whom God had been too kind to. They were told that drunkenness among men was decreasing, while intemperance among women, especially in their clubs, was increasing. He read the other day-whether true or not, but by one who professed to know-that wealthy business men and leisured men were in the main impure, and that women, to judge from their conversation, were no better. It seemed to him that England joined with France in the entente cordiale embrace, was on a slimy, slippery incline, which must end, if they worse. What did society care for the testants.

which they lived, and in which to ap-

Him? "We must ask Him: He is so silent contempt.

THE ANGLICAN. Bishop Ingram

The Lord Bishop of London during his recent visit to St. Petersburg, b special invitation of the Metropolitan Authority, attended the special service of the Purification of the Blessed Vir gin in St. Isaac's Cathedral. The Bish op, who was vested in his cope and mitre, was received by Bishop Viadimir who conducted the service. He extended the most brotherly welcome to Bishor Ingram, the two prelates embrack one another, in the afternoon at Tear-skoe Selo, the Bishop had a private audience with the Case, which lasted an hour and a further audience of half an hour with the Czaritza. On Sunda morning he preached in the Embass Church, and in the afternoon held Confirmation service, when he admissered the apostolic rate to forty pe sons, including two Poles.

About Plagiarism

In England they advertise openly t supply men with manuscript ser Joseph Parker used now and then to pray for 'The Gespel to be presched as it shall be retailed from other pul-pits.' But this will not do in this couna man's own, even if it is not as good as the one he might steal. And I think than a literary product; it is a part of one's self.

with the declaration that the conscious plagiarist is also a hypocrite.

Connor Henson, as Yale Lecturer Conan Hensley Henson has not, we believe, visited the United States, but his ability and independence have evidently made an impression from afar on American academic circles, for he has been chosen to give the Lyman Beecher lectures on preaching at Yale University next year. This lectureship founded, as it name implies, in meinory of one of the most distinguished f American Congregationalists the father of an even more eminent son, Henry Ward Beecher-has been filled by representatives of various denomina ment, are the late Dr. R. W. Dale tions. Among English Congregationa. ists who have received this appoint-Dr. R. F. Horton and, quitet recently. Dr. P. T. Forsyth.

Princess Henry of Battenburg has placed in the Battenburg Chapel of Whippington church a sculptured figure of Christ, with uplified hand in benediction Spiritual Wonder was the subject of the Bishop of Lendon's are Lenten address at St. Paul's church, Covent-garden. Philosophy began in wonder, and religion's power was gone when it lost the power of wonder. His message was 'Go back like children into the wonder-land in which the Early Church began.'

to lead a midnight march of the Church to stimulate his palate, invited John there was a prize, an international army through Westminster slums on April 4, followed by a service at St James-the-Less church, Pimilico. Dr. Pym, Bishop of Bornboy is dead.

He was born in 1856, ordained in 1880, in 1898 was consecrated Bishop of Mauritius, and in 1903 translated to the See of Bornboy. He was a strong Evangel-

THE PRESBRYTEIANS. Lord Overtoun's Will

Lord Overtoun left a sum of £61,200 in public bequests; £12,500 to the three Glasgow infirmaries; £1,000 each ident of that institution, having su to the Orphan Homes of Scotland and ceeded his brother in that position. the Glasgow Merchants' House; £2,000 to the Scottish Bible Society; £11,000 to the Glasgow Evangelistic Association; £28,000 for the United Free tension in Boston, and the change in Church of Scotland, and many sums of £500 to £100 to other charities and in

> A Presbyterian Protest Presbyterians of Halifax will appea to the Lieutenant-Governor to state whether the proclamation of Archbisa majority. Italians are in the major- hop. McCarthy condemning mixed werst, what was society? A lying, vici- ity in Ward 6 and Russians in Ward marriages is legal, and whether the Catholic Church or the province governs marriage regulations in Nova

The Autority of the Book

Ian Maciaren says:-If a preacher What could you expect from it but Preachers of various warring sects with the Bible in his hands is not positive, he has fallen short of his vocasome Jesus who would work a miracle hold. A pretty good sign he belongs tion. It is within his function to inwould put forth some magician's to us, eh? But then the whole thing struct and to defend, but he is chiefly a prophet with a message to the world from God. He is a witness to the suin a Presbyterian synod or, better, at premacy of the soul, the reality of the Baptist camp meting with his unseen the glory of the religious lifeaffirming with unfaltering voice those things which all men wish to believe and which they hold dimly in their minds. For the preacher of the Gospel learned or eloquent, but that he believe; and whatever be the case with as honest as they were. other men, he must believe with the marrow of his bones. If this be impossible then let him become anything he leases, but not a preacher; and if and master it in secret-in the wilderness with God, and stand before his fellow-men with unclouded face. There are enough men to ventilate doubts without the preacher's assistance. From him the world expects feith, and the dynamic of one man believing with all his mind and all his heart is incal-culable; it is a reservoir of a bloodless and worn-out society. Doubt can be got anywhere; faith ought to be supplied by the pulpit. spiritual Man, he declared, is a worm. The Roreans According to Dr. Underwood, Korean and immortality. The gay capital is Christians are noted for being "a Bible loving, prayer believing, giving, and actively working people." As many as 1,300 men have met for As many as 1,300 men have met for ten days at a time to study the Word MURE MAN NOT of God.

THE BAPTISTS Royalty at the Baptist Church The Prince of Wales visited the Bap-tist Church House last Thursday even-ing and delivered an address as president of the Royal London Philatelic Society. He seemed to be mitch impres-sed by the architectual qualities of the building.

The Fraternal, an English Baptist journal discussing this question, speaks the Epworth League and Young Peo-ple's Societies of the Methodist Church ournal discussing this question, speaks thus:

Mr. Cuff blames out latest modern methods for the fewness of conversations and the scanty additions made to the churches. He suggests that there is no need, no room for the numerous unattached super extra hyper missions now in vogue. Thousands of peunds, he says have been wasted on great of Canada, preached at both morning and evening services at the Exmouth street Methodist Church yesterday. ter of 2nd Chronicles and the sixth he says, have been wasted on great organized missions. Principal Blomcause he prepared his way before the Lord his God." eld confesses that experience and obopinion that the results of evangelistic Judah. All our life is subject to spirissions are vastly disappointing. T. ited law which means spiritual power. E. Ruth is very outspoken.

The explanation of the fact is plain. I am unwilling to come to the con-clusion that professional evangelism is a. gigantic money-making machine, He was made king when a mighty man was needed. sometimes manipulated by the actute circumstances is not a great man. This statesmen of great religious organizawould be a good lesson for young men. tions to enrich the common coffers. If What an error to judge a man by his any man thinks this statement too weeping, I advise him to try and arman who was not a greater man than his possessions was not a strong man. services of a great missioner and he A man is great because of what he is will find such services arranged on a not because of what he has. sort of preferential tariff system. after abundance of things. Beware

The greatest and most successful Un-ted' Mission—conducted by one of our gifted and charming evangelists—with which I have ever been associated cost hundreds of pounds, exclusive of huge 'lecture' collections sent to headthem fulfilled by the young men. quarters. There were 250 converts, not twenty of whom could be traced two ears later.

Pobably the verdict of the contribut. rs is best summed up in the words of Rev. J. R. Wood, that "the healthiest kind of mission is that conducted by ministers themselves in their own

Rev. Allan Hoben, Ph, D., son of Thos. Hoben, superintendent of the I. C. R. at Gibson, has resigned the pastorship of the First Baptist Church at Detroit to accept the professorship of homilics and theology at Chicago Un-

THE METHODISTS French Methodism

the Protestant Church Methodism is paying considerable attention to the province of Quebec, The French Methstituency, and among its present students is one candidate for the ministry and several others who are studying with the same end in view. The report for the year closes thus:—The French Institute is a credit to the Methodist Church of Canada. Al-though the youngest of the Institutions of its kind in the province of Quebec, it is now second to none in accomplishing work and results. It has conquered a first place as, an educational centre and as a missionary power. The present management is be highly congratulated.

Bishop Duncan

Bishop W. W. Duncan, of the Methedist Episcopal Church South, died recently at Spartanburg, S. C. He had been ill for several months. He was born at Randolph-Macon College in Virginia in 1839 and was a former president of that institution, having suc-Bishop Fowler

On March 20th, in New York, Bishop Fowler of the Methodist Episcopal Church, passed to his reward. He was born in Canada in 1837 but the greater part of his life was spent in the United States, He was a man of great ability.

SATURDAY SERMONETTE

SMALL PEOPLE

The doctor who doesn't like you be ause you don't employ him. The trader who is cool toward you ecause you don't trade with him. The politician who won't speak to you ecause you did not vote for him. The man who cuts you when he meets you in your working clothes, and does not notice you when he is with more influential friends.

antage of his foe. The man who is not glad when his friend succeeds, even if he does not. The men and women who depreciate and belittle your house, horse, hat, baby, because they have the impression they are better than theirs. The men who insinuate that the reathe first qualification is not that he be son you made a success of your business and they failed, that you were not

The man who takes an unfair adjoy hearing another praised, or com-The man who takes advantage of that hindered the reign of Christ and my friend's estrangement to make a nothing but the stewardship of money The man who is silent when an ab-

The men and women who never en-sent friend is criticised unkindly and incorrectly. The man who is not bigger than his church. And the man who steals from another church to enlarge his own-The man who insists on doing your thinking for you, politically and theologically. All these are very little peogaining consciousness.

KING EDWARD'S NIECE WHO IS SOON TO WED ITALIAN PRINCE

PRINCESS PATRICIA OF CONNAUGHT.

ROME, March 26.-According to the the reigning families of Italy and Eng-Neapolitan journal Il Mattino, there is land." some prospect that the Duchess Elena | The foregoing allusion is conjectured Egypt last autumn provoked such sen- Patricia of Conaught with the gallant sational comment, may be persuaded Duke of the Abruzzi, or, as others surto return to Italy shortly, on the occa- mise, with the Count of Turin. sion of Queen Alexandra's arrival on the Neapolitan Riviera. It is well can contract a marriage outside the known that the Queen of England en- Roman Catholic church, Princes Patertains a very tender affection for the duchess, whose recent trials have deeply distressed her majesty.

Il Mattino states that Queen Alexandra will pass several days in her royal highness' company at Canodimonte, where King Edward is also ex-

Moreover, adds Il Mattino, a further | and and Sweden, where her sister is meeting betwen the British and Italian the wife of the crown prince, Princess sovereigns "will be made the occasion Patricia has now chosen a lady-inof the official announcement of an exceedingly welcome event which is des- the late Sir William Adam, for many tined to knit still closer the existing years Liberal whip in the House of whose sudden flight into to refer to the betrothal of Princess As no member of the House of Savoy tricia has with reluctance decided to change her religion, and will shortly begin preparations for her reception into that church. Her royal highness will spend the greater portion of this season in London. For her convenience in making frequent journeys between Malta Eng

"Do note be satisfied with a fair average. He who makes the resolve will become a super-excellent man. We IS BAD BLOOD

How to Get New Health and Strength in the Spring.

The winter months are trying to the health of even the most robust. Confinement indoor in overheared and nearly always badly ventilated rooms-When we have more might in men we in the bome, in the shop and in the school-taxes the vitality of even the strongest. The blood becomes thin and watery, or clogged with impurities, the ing his way before the Lord and so liver sluggish, the kidneys weakened. Sometimes you get up in the morning just as tired as when you went to bed Some people have headaches; others are low spirited; some have pimples and skin emptions. These are all spring symptoms that the blood is out of condition. You can't cure these troubles with purgative medicines, which meregive you strength in spring is a tonic, and the one always reliable tonic and blood builder is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills not only banish spring ills, but guard you against the as anaemia, nervous debility, rheumatism. indigestion and kidney trouble. makes new, rich red blood which strengthens every nerve, every organ i and every part of the body. This is fore been so numerous. why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the A statement of the growth of this favorite spring medicine with thou- class of immigration is interesting. sands and thousands throughout Can- From 1897 it was as follows: ada. Try this medicine this spring and 1879...... 2,413 you will have energy and strength to 1898..... ... 9,111 resist the torrid heat of the coming 1899 ..... ..... 11,945 ummer. Mr. Jas. Haskel, Port Mait- 1900 (six months) ...... 8,543 land, N. S., says: 'I' was troubled with 1900-01..... 17,987 headaches, had a bad taste in my -901-02...... 26,328 mouth, my tongue was coated, and I 1902-03..... 49,473 feeling of depression. I got a supply 1904-05 ...... 43,652 of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and it was 1905-06 ...... 57,919 not long before they began to help me 1906-07 (nine months) ..... 34,659 and I was soon feeling as well as ever 1907 (nine months) ...... No science would antiquate Christ's I had been." You can get these pills teachings and time. The great grave from any medicine dealer or six boxes digger might strew the centuries with for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medimovements of departed systems and cine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TORONTO, Ont., March 29 -- A Wir nipeg dispatch says the charge brought by the Czar of Russia against Ludkopy, former treasurer of the transcaucasia for two hundred thousand dollars, which the defendant is alleged to have embezzled, was dismissed Saturday by the police magistrate, who held that he had no jurisdiction. Ludkopy came to Winnipeg with a woman of great beauty some months ago and invested heavily in real estate. He vas about to open a store when the heard of the Russian government's action, and the left. He is now said to fer, aged 23, who came here from e in California. The C. P. R. station at Weston was dead at the home of his grandmother, struck by lightning Saturday and Mrs. Edward Shaffer, South Boston, vesterday he having that himself

Only One "BROMO QUININE." That is LAXATIVE BROMO QUIN-

U. S. EMIGRATION TO WESTERN CANADA

Year No Exception

Figures Submitted by Hon, Clifford Siften: Show 350,000 American Settlers

Since 1897

OTTAWA, Mar. 27 In his speech last week Hon. Clifford Sifton spoke in the strongest terms of praise of the class of settlers the Canadian Northly gallop through the system, leaving west has been receiving from the Unityou still weaker. What you need to ed States. It is gratifying to learn that there is every prospect of this immigration continuing in increasing volume.

W. D. Scott, commissioner of immimore serious ailments that follow, such gration, today received word from W. J. White, inspector of United States agencies, that the prospects of a large Every dose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills migration from the Western and Northern States to Canada were never brighter. The enquiries have never be-

States immigrants, and the very satisfactory fact is recorded regarding them that these people took up 61,859 homesteads. Taking two and one-half people as the average to a family, this represents forty three per cent of the immigrants or homesteaders - a far larger proportion than holds good with mmigrants from the British Isles of BOSTON, Mar. 29.-Harry E. Schaf-Moneton twelve years ago; was found ton, yesterday, he having shot himself night. He had been melancholy and Friday morning he was locked in the is deaf and did not hear the shot fired. Saturday the door was broken open by GROVE. Used the World over to Cure a neighbor and the body found on the CHARGED

Peter Le Fevre Custody and Released

AUGUSTA, ME. States Deputy Man Haskell brought to Peter Lefebvre of S Canadian Pacific pa running between St. to Megantic, Quebe smuggling and cone porting goods, Lefeb before United Stat Lewis A. Burleigh. and the hearing was day, April 3, on the States District Att Whitehouse of Porth securing of more wi was arrested at Mat day afternoon by Dep kell. The complaint the line at Vancebor ping it by express to tains seven or eight of alleged violations Lefebvre denies that engaged in this bus that on some of the was not even in th Bail was furnished wealthiest lumberm returned home on th Pullman. It is under ditional witnesses Boston ,and it is said parties to whom go have been shipped.

some prominent St. were interested with smuggling operation John, who are legi doing and stoutly ma

Awarded at

Satur OTTAWA, Mar. 29. the cabinet Saturday cil was passed award six sections of the N tinental railway, agg In each case the lowe cepted and the figure tors are understoo lower than those s contracts last year. ering a distance of & from a point on the $8 miles west of Mon Trunk Pacific. Section 2, covering westward to the Tob

G. T. P. Section 8, covering miles from the Tobi town of Grand Falls. ard Kitchen Co. Section 4, being a st westward from boundary between Section 5, which con 100 miles westward fr Ontario to E. F. & G

Section 6, a distance ward from Lake Nip G. E. Foquier.

> Was Three-Mas and Owned McInt

The three-masted s Kenny is a total the Island of Curaco ated one hundred mile ern coast of South An The news of the wr McIntyre, who owner day afternoon.

The schooner was

Point on the Mississi Cabello, Venezuela, bard pine. She was commande ton of Annapolis, N. as signed by Captain made at is presumed that th

The wrecked school The Helen E. Kenn burthen. She was but y John McLeod for 1891, and was registe

CAST For Infants an The Kind You Have