Laid at Rest

Very quietly and reverently the remains were laid at rest in the Bown family plot this morning of Maude Thompson—late of Quebec. The funeral took place on the arrival of the ten o'clock train direct to Greenwood cemetery—the Rev. Arch-leacon Mackenzie read the beautiful "Church of England service at the grave," and Messrs. Harry Hatley, Kenneth Bunnell, Ramie Hilton and Burton Wilkes acted as pallbearers. Mr. J. Thompson and his son, Mr. Kenneth Thompson came here on the sad mission and are guests in the city of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilkes, Darling street, until to-morrow.

Nuptial Notes

LENNINGTON—LAKE

The wedding took place this afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, West Street, city, of Lottie Margery, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lake, who was united in marriage by the Rev. Lavell to Norman, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lennington of Paris, Ont.

The bride was charmingly attired in a pretty gown of embroidered French voile over white satin. Her veil was tastefully arranged in mop cap fashion with a wreath of orange blossoms.

The bride, who was given away by her father, entered the drawing room to the strains of "Lohengrin's Wedding March" (ably rendered by Miss Pearl Ormandy) carrying a bouquet of bridal roses.

Miss Ariel, sister of the bride, who was gowned in pale blue voile over blue silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses, acted as bridesmaid.

The bridegroom was supported by Mr. Roy Lake, brother of the bride. The ceremony took place in an alcove of palms and flowers, which were tastefully arranged.

On completion of the ceremony, Miss Rena Lake sang in a sweet voice, "O Promise Me," after which the happy couple, accompanied by the assembled guests, adjourned to a large marquee erected in the grounds of the adjoining residence, where a dainty repast was served and the usual toasts were duly honored.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a silver mesh bag and to the best man a pearl tie pin.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lennington and family of Paris, Mr. and Mrs. I. Lake, Mr. and Mrs. T. Appleton of Hamilton. The presents were both numerous and costly, among which was a cheque from the bride's parents and a beautiful chair from the parents of the groom.

The now Mr. and Mrs. N. Lennington left amid showers of confetti and good wishes on the six o'clock G. T. R. train for Toronto and points east. The bride travelled in a dress of cream serge with hat to match.

To The Editor

Licensed Brothel Keeping in Brantford.

To the Editor of the Courier. Sir—The people of Eagle Place are much indebted to The Courier for its attempt to get an enquiry into the death of a young man in the house of a notorious brothel keeper and for showing her attempt to take two school girls from their proper guardians and harbour them in her house for doubtful purposes. Now will you help us to condemn the turning loose of this woman upon society again after the clearest proof that she keeps a brothel. Judge Hardy sent Mrs. Laconte to prison in a similar case, but Mr. Livingstone advises Mrs. Blacken to get out of town. The frequent commit perjury besides breaking the law, but of course get off with a trifle fine. If we want Brantford to be a thriving city, we don't want to encourage the defiance of the laws.

Labor and Capital "Wars" To Be Solved.

Mr. Samuel Gompers.

All the "wars" that have been fought between labor and capital, all the efforts to secure by lobbying legislation which would profit either labor or capital, are to be investigated by Congress. Samuel Gompers and John Mitchell, Manufacturers, have been subpoenaed. One Senator said the quest might reach the McNamara dynamiting case and many of the great strikes.

London Won 4-1—New Pitcher Was Good for Sox

London bagged the series when they over Red Sox yesterday and down by a 4 to 1 score. The visitors played the off their feet, they outbatted, completely out-generated, had no trouble in winning through the game, had down.

The London team are the best aggregation seen here and having secured about win the pennant, witnessed yesterday's game plainly that Brantford was freely admitted and tending compliments were Forest City team. The cr stands took their medicine a whimper, though they Sox till the finish.

Berlin won yesterday at ford will have to strengthen they want to keep out of A month and a half and will be over and Brantford have lines out for players season. A couple of constant hitting outfielders are needed at once. A person flies, but an outfielder that like a "ship without a rudder" and can hit hard and often. There has been one this strated all along, i.e. there players who can play base those who come from the land States.

Duggan, London's new pitched a good game and Brants guessing through game. He looks fast enough league.

The Cockneys scored on the 1st, 6th, 8th and 9th. The Sox got their solite in the second and thought looked as if they would do rash, they fell down in the Coose caught again yet though he did the very best still his throwing to bases.
