

Health for Sick Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Been Woman's Most Reliable Medicine—Here is More Proof.

To women who are suffering from some form of woman's special ills, and have a constant fear of breaking down, the three following letters ought to bring hope:—

North Crandon, Wis.—"When I was 16 years old I got married and at 18 years I gave birth to twins and it left me with very poor health. I could not walk across the floor without having to sit down to rest and it was hard for me to keep about and do my work. I went to a doctor and he told me I had a displacement and ulcers, and would have to have an operation. This frightened me so much that I did not know what to do. Having heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I thought I would give it a trial and it made me as well as ever. I cannot say enough in favor of the Pinkham remedies."—Mrs. MARY ASBACH, North Crandon, Wis.

Lawton, Okla.—"When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I seemed to be good for nothing. I tired easily and had headaches much of the time and was irregular. I took it again before my little child was born and it did me a wonderful amount of good at that time. I never fail to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to ailing women because it has done so much for me."—Mrs. A. L. McCASLAND, 609 Howe St., Lawton, Okla.

From a Grateful Massachusetts Woman.
Roxbury, Mass.—"I was suffering from inflammation and was examined by a physician who found that my trouble was caused by a displacement. My symptoms were bearing down pains, backache, and sluggish liver. I tried several kinds of medicine; then I was asked to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has cured me and I am pleased to be in my usual good health by using it and highly recommend it."—Mrs. B. M. Oseoon, 1 Haynes Park, Roxbury, Mass.

Gin Pills

FOR THE KIDNEYS

Why Recommended

"My case was very serious and I was so sick that everybody expected my death any day. No suffering could ever be worse than what I had to endure. I could feel at first the gravel passing through my bladder but now I am as strong as ever. I weigh about 20 lbs. more than when I started to take Gin Pills. I beg you to publish my letter so that people may know what Gin Pills had done for me. The first box relieved me a good deal, eight boxes were sufficient to cure me entirely, and bring me back to perfect health." (Sgd.) ISIDORE THOMAS, Tillet Road Glen, N.B.

A Word or Two About Telegraph Boys.

Hilus Webb, son of the station agent at Harbor Boucher, Antigonish County, who passed the final examinations in telegraphy at the New Glasgow despatching office of the I. R. C., is but nine years old. He was warmly congratulated by the chief despatcher, Mr. Stewart, and other officials of the I. R. C.—Sydney Post.

If the age of this boy is given correctly his work is indeed unique; but we want to tell this bright young gaffer, that we have a clever lad at the C. P. R. key at Truro office, Reginald Casey, a little older than the lad mentioned above, and when Miss N. K. Smith, the efficient Manager of C. P. R. lines here, gets through with him, Hilus Webb will have to look to his laurels.—Truro News.

(Miss Smith mentioned above is Miss Nora Smith of Kentville, who is an adept in telegraphy. Her friends will be glad to know that she is making good in her responsible position at Truro.)—Ed. Advertiser.

IT'S TIME

you sent some more Zam-Buk to your soldier friend. The men at the front are asking for it. They say there is nothing to equal Zam-Buk for the many little accidents incidental to a soldier's life; nothing ends pain and draws out inflammation so quickly.

When an injury is sustained, if the wound is neglected and left exposed to germs, festering is liable to follow, so that even a very minor injury, neglected, may have serious consequences. If, however, a soldier has a box of Zam-Buk in his pocket, to apply at the right moment, much unnecessary suffering can be avoided.

See to it, therefore, that your soldier friend is kept supplied with Zam-Buk. Remember, too, Zam-Buk is just as useful in the home! All druggists 50c., or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.
