are what the boys need. A crowd of over 400 witnessed the match and as a result the boys are considerbly ahead on the match. says advertising doesn't pay?

The visitors had a jolly good time about town celebrating the victory the festivities.

A number of rooters from Lvndhurst, Toledo and Frankville were on the grounds and cheered lustily for the vistors. Never mind, boys, you'll pull their wool yet.

The umpire in the senior contes didn't know a strike from a balloon but otherwise he did very well.

The head magister of the public school may be a bit lanky, but his batav was just as tall.

he can steal bases about as easy a darky steals chickens. Arthur Fowler, an old Athens boy, was the slab artist for the Collegiates in the senior game. He's a good one for a youngster.

Laidlaw, the visiting junior pitcher, is a south paw, but the local juniors hit him easy enough.

Mr. Dowsley, at second, made errors on grounders, but otherwise he played a good game.

Brock made a grand stand play when, after making a bunt hit, he kicked the ball out of Fower's reach on his way to first.

Parish made some errors in the field, but he's a second Toft at getting his base on balls, "Muggins" Barber was net in pitching form Saturday, but the fact that he can pitch was demonstrated in the game with Lyndhurst two weeks ago, when in the whole nine innings not a man took their base on balls.

DeWolfe pitched a good game in the first match, but we are inclined to think that he can get more pie over his plate than he can strikes

The vigilance committee had no little amount of trouble in keeping the crowd off the playing lines. The general public would greatly aid the players and promote better play if, when attending either matches or practices, they would keep well on the farther side of the track and not approach the diamond at all. They can see just as well and besides will not obstruct the view of those who are witnessing the game from a distance.

THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC

Above we give an exce lent cut of Mr. Haye, general manager of the Grand Trunk Railway Company. The great improvement wrought in the train service, the smooth working of every detail of management, and the financial success achieved by the coad under his administration has made him one of the best known railway men of the continent Lately he has bulked large in the public eye by reason of his connection with the application of the G. T. R, for a trans-continental charter. The full and fair presentation of the case he secured before the railway committee at Othawa at length outweighed the sectional objections and handicaps sought to be imposed and there is now every likelihood that in a short time the great wheat fields of the West will have another outle for their products and an important section of Ontario be opened up to settlement.

The eastern starting point of the road is not yet fixed, but assuming that it will be Quebec, the length of the projected Grand Trunk Pacific Railroan will be 3,116 miles, livided as follows :-

Quebec to Lake Abictibi ..........498 Abittioi to Lake Nepigon . . . . . . 479 Nepigon to Winnipeg.....440
Winnipeg to Edmonton.....836 Edmonton to Dunvegan .....

in Payer of Mr. Stratton-Also Say There Is No Evidence to Sustain the Charge of Conspiracy-Report Covered 100 Typewritten Pages, About Twenty

Toronto, June 1.—The feature of the Assembly to-day, which sat only an hour, was the sending of Mr. Lucas' bill for the garnishment of the salaries of civil servants to the committee after a short debate. Short spacehes in its favor were made by Messrs. Lucas, Gross, Smith, Whitney, Hoyle and Jessop. Mr. Gibson consented to let the bill go to committee, although at first he wanted it withdrawn.

Toronto, June 2.—In the Assembly to-day, when the House was in committee on the Temiskaming Railway, Mr. Whitney spoke in favor of Government operation for ten years. Mr. Davis' bill for the appropriation of lands for South African soldlers and volunteer militia was read a third time. The Attorney-General explained "The Statute Law Amendment Act, 1908," and two hours were spent in consideration of the general bill to amend the Municipal Act, which has 120 clauses.

Toronte, June 4.—The report of the Gamey Commission was laid on the table of the House this afternoon by Fremier Ress. It covers 109 typewritten folios. It commences by referring to the statement read by Mr. Gamey in the House and refers to it as a document of "extreme importance." It then goes over leading charges as elucidated by the evidence and summarizes them.

The report goes over the evidence in detail, and the finding, as distinguished from a review of the evidence, is as follows:

Mr. Gamey had ne personal interceurse with any member of the Ministry except the Provincial Secretary. With two or three of the others he had some official correspondence, but with the rest net even that.

With regard to the added charge of Toronte, June 4.-The report of

With regard to the added charge of

With regard to the added charge of conspiracy, the Commissioners are of the opinion that as a matter of law there is no evidence whatever to sustain it, as against the members of the Government and the other persons charged.

And according to the methods of an ordinary trial they would be discharged from the said accusation by the presiding judicial officer.

This being so, the matter of the original charge alone remains, and as to the Provincial Secretary there is the testimony that has been commented upon. In our opinion the corrupt charges stand disproved by a great body of evidence which appears to be more accurate and credible great body of evidence which appears to be more accurate and credible than that adduced in support there-of.

Ottawa, June 2.—There was a long discussion on the Treadgold Commission to-day, the Opposition objecting to the appointment of Judge Britton. Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that Judge Britton had been asked to act, but the Commission would be brought down in full in the House in a day or two. The House did some further work with Mr. Blair's Railway Commission bill and then passed Customs estimates in the evening.

Ottawa, June 3.—When the House adjourned to-night it had covered 120 clauses of Mr. Blair's railway commission bill. The whole day was commission bill. The whole day was spent in examining the clauses of the measure. There are 310 clauses in the bill. There were no important amendments to the bill. A wealth of discussion took place over detail, but in nearly every instance the clause was allowed to go unchanged.
