ATHENS ELECTION

As a result of the election held on Monday, Athens municipal council for 1911 will be constituted as follows:

Reeve—M. B. Holmes

Councillors—E. J. Purcell, E. Taylor, A. E. McLean and A. Scott

The councillors were elected by acclamation, and there was no tinge of bitterness in the campaign for re-election. The rival candidates, M. B. Holmes and A. N. Sherman, just happened to see a number of ratepayers and exchanged with them the season's greetings, but the management of the proceedings preliminary to the poll was left largely in the hands of their active, for a large vote was polled. Following is the result:—

FOR REEVE
	No 1	No 2	Total
Holmes, M. B.	73	79	151
Sherman, A. N.	27	26	53

Majority for Holmes..... 98

There was no caucusing proceeding the Athens nomination, and as a result the council for 1911 represent the whole people in the fullest sense, and a record of careful efficient service may be anticipated.

PRIMARY TICKET WINS

In Rear Yonge and Escott on Monday there was held one of the hottest election campaigns in the history of the township. There were issues at stake, but respecting these there were so many charges and counter-charges of misrepresentation that the ordinary ratepayer must have found a clear conclusion difficult.

To an outsider, one feature of the campaign appeared evident, and that was a determination on the part of a large number to stay with the nominees of the primary, and their triumphant return was not a surprise.

For many years the municipal affairs of the township have been conducted on friendly political lines, the number that each party should send to the council being clearly understood. However, dissatisfaction arose as to the results of the caucus method of selecting representatives, and a primary meeting was called at which representatives of both parties were present and a reeve and council selected. Then followed a stormy nomination meeting and a strenuous campaign, the result of which is given below:—

FOR REEVE
	No 1	No 2	No 3	Total
Ferguson, A. M.	76	65	47	188
Mulvena, J. H.	29	46	49	124

FOR COUNCILLORS
Cughan, Jas.	79	71	43	193
Heffernan, T.	56	75	48	179
Hay, W. C.	71	66	59	196
Kelly, S. W.	82	79	60	221
Shea, E. J.	15	37	34	86

HARDY-RAPPELL

John C. Hardy, Alexandria Bay, N.Y., was united in marriage at 6.30 p.m. on Dec. 28, at the home of the bride's mother, on Egin St., Athens, to Miss Chrystal Rappell, daughter of Mrs Mary Rappell and the late J. A. Rappell. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev F. A. Read, was witnessed by about 45 guests. The bride who was given away by her brother, J. G. Rappell, looked very attractive, attired in a white silk gown, dress, trimmed with beautiful lace. She carried a very pretty bouquet of white roses, hyacinths and maiden hair fern. The wedding march was played by Miss B. Lester of Rentrev. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ethel Slack sang sweetly. "The Voice That Breathed o'er Eden." The house was tastefully decorated with holly, ever greens and flags. The young couple stood under an arch formed by the Union Jack and Stars and Stripes, with a horseshoe composed of carnations and sunlax suspended from it.

Following the wedding ceremony and hearty congratulations, a dainty wedding supper was served, the tables being artistically ornamented with sunlax, bouquets of carnations, roses and narcissus. A bevy of the bride's girl friends did the catering.

The presents were numerous and costly, as well as useful and ornamental. They included cut glass, silver, linen, substantial cheques, etc., and showed the popularity of the bride and groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a crescent of pearls. He also presented Miss Lester with a gold signet ring.

The ceremony was witnessed by four generations: Mrs Jas. Macpherson, the bride's grandmother; Mrs Macpherson, the bride's mother, Mrs. Brown, the bride's twin sister and little Miss Mary Brown, the bride's niece.

Mr and Mrs Hardy left at about ten o'clock on a wedding trip to Alexandria Bay and Three Mile Bay where they will visit relatives for a few days, following which they will proceed to Syracuse where a lucrative position awaits the groom. The bride traveled in a suit of coal-ash grey serge, with rajah turban of red velvet.

A CARD

To the Electors of the Municipality of Athens.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—I take this opportunity of thanking you for the loyal and spontaneous support you gave me at the Municipal elections on Monday and for the magnificent majority you recorded for me at the polls.

That my work as chief officer of this beautiful village is criticized is not at all surprising, but that these criticisms are so very mild, and that (after all the years of my incumbency) my candidacy for a continuance in office has been so warmly supported and endorsed is most gratifying indeed.

With the honor conferred, however, there is a responsibility. Therefore, with the assistance and advice of the gentlemen whom you have unanimously elected as your councillors, and with your hearty co-operation: Let us, as reeve and council and citizens, enter upon this year and continue it throughout with one motto ever before us, namely: "The greatest good to the greatest number."

And now, Ladies and Gentlemen, as I was not able to see you during the campaign, and as I may not be able to call on you personally, I take this opportunity of offering you my very best thanks and of wishing you and each of you a happy and prosperous New Year.

Your obedient servant,
M. B. HOLMES.

1910 THANKS

We want to thank all our friends and customers for liberal patronage extended to this store during the year closed, and with your assistance we hope to make 1911 a year better than has been.

On our part, we begin the new year with only one thought—to deserve this success! to make good.
