INDUCTION OF REV. S. J. MCARTHUR.

New Presbyterian Pastor Solemnly Introduced to His New Work.

HEARTILY WELCOMED.

A Great Reception Given Him, and A Delightful Program Carried Out.

The induction of Rev. S. J. McArthur into the pastorate of St. James' Presbyterian church of Newcastle took place on Thursday evening, 23rd instant. A large audience assembled to witness the ceremonies, which were very solemn and impressive.

Rev. F. C. Simpson of St. Mark's church, Douglastown, preached the sermon, taking for his text Psalm 122 verses 6 and 7: "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palms." The reverend gentleman, who is a very earnest and forceful speaker, strongly emphasized the importance of Union in a congregation, of peace among its members and a spirit of co-operation with the pastor. The pastor needed the sympathy and assistance of every member if their mutual relations were to be pleasant and profitable. He spoke very hopefully concerning the union of pastor and people about to be established.

The moderator, Rev. A. D. Archibald of Rexton addressed the minister. Mr. Archibald prefaced his remarks with the explanation that he felt it was out of place for him to tender any advice or instructions to a man whose pastorate in past years had been so significantly blessed and successful—a man whose experience had been so broad and whose work had stood the test so well. He, the Moderator, could only point him to the common source of all joy and strength and express the hope that his present pastorate would be in all respects as successful as the one with which he had just severed official connections.

Rev. J. Morris MacLean of Chatham, intra-moderator, addressed the congregation, giving from his accumulated fund of various pastoral experience some plain, pointed and workable suggestions as to the way in which the people have it in their power to help or hinder their pastor. He severely criticized the unreasonable demands many make upon their minister and the scant courtesy he is so often shown. Referring to Mr. McArthur, he said he had known him for three years and had the highest opinion of him as a man, a scholar, a Christian, and a sympathetic and successful pastor.

During the services fitting music was rendered by a full choir, with Miss Olive Williamson at the organ. Notable features were the solos of Mrs. J. D. MacNutt and Rev. Mr. Simpson, the latter rendering a quaint and touching hymn entitled "Penitence."

Revs. Geo. S. Mitchell of Redbank, MacKay of Tabusintac, and John Valentine were present at the ceremonies.

The church was handsomely decorated by the painstaking ladies of the congregation. The building has been lately painted throughout, and presents a fine appearance. After the induction was over,

ADJOURNED SESSION CIRCUIT COURT.

Interesting Suit Over the Question of Who Had the Right to Cut Lumber

Circuit Court which adjourned on May 7th, re-opened here yesterday morning, Judge Landry presiding. The only business was a Replevin case—James Russell of Lower Newcastle versus Thomas Scott of Bartibogue.

The dispute is as to who had the right to cut lumber on the property of the late John Stranach of Bartibogue. Plaintiff bought the lumber privilege from Stranach in 1902 and cut part of the logs. Defendant bought the right to cut from the same party in 1904, and the lawsuit is over what Scott cut since that date. Russell has brought suit to replevin the lumber that Scott claims is his. Stranach has since died. Plaintiff's lawyers are M. G. Teed of St. John and J. A. Haviland of Chatham. Defendant's counsel are Robt. Murray, M. P. P., and T. W. Butler. The case went to the jury this morning.

Hamblett Wood, wife of a prominent merchant, $70. True bills were also found against Chas. Smith charged with stealing oilskin suits from fishermen, and against Wm. Mahoney for stealing. They will be tried by Speedy Trials Act.

The congregation and the friends present, repaired to the Sunday school room where Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Stothart made everyone acquainted with the new pastor and his estimable lady.

Copp, Mrs. D. Cool, Mrs. J. Robertson, Miss M. Davidson, Miss M. Fleming, and their assistants being very busy for a while.

A GUATEMALAN BURIAL.

Bodies of Political Opponents Thrown in the Sewers Till Rescued by Indignant Citizens.

Mexico City, May 28.—Further news received here tell of the suicide of four prominent Guatemalans and the sentencing to death of nineteen others for alleged complicity in a plot against the life of President Cabrera. The bodies of the suicides were thrown by soldiers into sewers. The citizens protested and disinterred the bodies giving them decent burial with great honors.

Arthur McGee and Parker McConahy, who last Wednesday pleaded guilty to the charge of carnally knowing a girl under 14 years of age, were sentenced by Judge Wilson to two years in Dorchester penitentiary. In passing sentence the judge pointed out that the maximum penalty provided by law was life imprisonment and a whipping, but on account of the youth of prisoners and out of consideration for their parents, he had decided to deal leniently with them. His honor remarked on the absence of any extenuating circumstances in favor of the accused.
