A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE.

Copy of a letter from John Poptar, an Agriculturial, residing all Newborough, near Hexham, dated May 16, 1800.

To Professor Hollowar,

Sin,—1 was ufflicted with a swelling on each side of the leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great vize. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newgastle infinancy for four weeks. After unious nuclea of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Anving heard so much of your Pills and Ointment, I determined to try them, and in less than a month, I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the Hay Harvest, and shhough I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no geturs whatever of my complaint.

Sin,—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject, from the totime, to attacks of infimumation in the side, for which the was the and the subject of the papers, the sended nure effects of the propers of the papers, the sended nure effects of the propers the sended prevented to a great extent; still the pain could not be removed.
