Ivanhoe was convinced by the fall that the face for goods.

Ivanhoe was convinced by the reasoning, and obeyed the direc-TON OF WOOL tions of Rebecca. The draught that Reuben administered was of a Wanted at the Establish- narcotic quality, and secured the patient undisturbed slumber. In the morning his physician found him entirely free from feverish symptons, and fit to undergo the tatigue of a journey.

He was deposited in the horse-litter which had brought him from the lists, and every precaution was PERMANENT and TRANSIENT Boarders taken for his travelling with ease. In one circumstance only even the entreaties of Rebecca were unable to secure sufficient attention to the accommodation of the wounded knight. Isaac had ever the fear of robbery before his eyes. Therefore he journeyed at a great rate, and made short halts and shorter repasts, so that he passed by Cedric and Athelstane who had several DOZ. SCYTHES, (assorted,) Clipper, Blake Snake, Eureka, Tip Top, Dominion Champion, Climax and the None Such: the Convent of St Withold. Yet such was the virtue of Mariam's balsam or such was the strength of Ivanhoe's constitution, that he did not sustain from the hurried journey that inconvenience which his kind physician had at first apprehended.

In another point of view, however, the Jew's haste proved somewhat more than good speed. The rapidity with which he insisted on travelling bred several disputes between him and the party whom he had hired to attend him as a SMALL FLOWER POT TABLES, SMALL WALNUT BRACKETS, the natural love of ease and good the natural love of ease and good living which the Normans stigmatized as laziness and gluttony. Reversing Shylock's position they had accepted the employment in hopes UST received and in stock, 160 of feeding upon the wealthy Jew, Kegs Cut Nails and Spikes, for sale and were very much displeased when they found themselves disappointed by the rapidity with which he insisted on their proceeding.
